MONSOON TO ARRIVE EARLY THIS YEAR, ONSET ON MAY 15

Southwest monsoon will advance into South Andaman Sea and adjoining Southeast Bay of Bengal around May 15, the IMD said

ANDAMAN BRACES FOR RAINS IN NEXT 5 DAYS

The India Meteorological Department said widespread rainfall is likely over the Andaman and Nicobar Islands during the next five days. The islands are likely to experience isolated heavy falls over the region from May 14-16. IMD said squally weather with wind speed reaching 40-60 kmph is also likely. Normally, northwest monsoon covers the entire archipelago on May 22

Bigger inflation shock as 7.79% exceeds forecast

April Consumer Price Index-based inflation at 8-year high; March industry output drags

MONIKA YADAV @New Delhi

TWO sets of data released on Thursday held a mirror to the grim economic situation in the country. While retail inflation jumped to an eight-year high at 7.79% in April, in a way justifying the Reserve Bank of India's sudden move on May 4 to jack up the repo rate ahead of schedule, industrial production grew at a dismal pace of 1.9% in March. In February, the Index of Industrial production, which measures the industrial activity in the country, had showcased a growth of 1.7%.

The latest inflation shock is on the back of increase in prices of food, fuel & light, and transport and communication. Inflation in the food basket rose to 8.38% in April from 7.68% in March, data showed. The higher than expected price rise was more broad-based with miscellaneous items, fuel and light, and clothing and footwear also contributing to the inflation.

This is the fourth straight month inflation lies above the Reserve Bank of India's upper tolerance level of 6%. Back in May 2014, inflation was at 8.3% and in March 2022, it stood at 6.95%. The apex bank's task is to maintain retail inflation at 4% with a margin of 2% on either side for a five-year period ending March 2026.

Experts say the continuous rise in inflation will push RBI to further increase the interest rate by 50 basis points (bps). Recently, it had raised the repo rate by 40 bps to 4.4% and the cash reserve ratio by 50 bps to 4.5%. Owing to good growth in direct and indirect tax revenue, the Centre can opt to reduce union excise duty on petrol to contain inflation.

Higher interest rates could hit investment and growth, warns D K Srivastava, chief policy advisor at EY India. But he adds that there may be a positive spinoff as well, thanks to higher growth in taxes linked to higher nominal growth.

However, even with the upward trend in inflation, the Centre seems optimistic about its impact on low-income groups. "Evidence on consumption patterns suggests that inflation in India has a lesser impact on low-income strata than on high-income groups," the ministry said in its latest monthly review report.

Meanwhile, equity markets continued to dip over scary US inflation data with the Sensex crashing over 1,158 points and the Nifty tanking below the 16,000-level on Thursday. P13

With Ranil as PM, Gota to face no-trust vote

YESHI SELI @New Delhi

IN a dramatic turn of events, Ranil Wickremesinghe was appointed the 26th Prime Minister of Sri Lanka by President Gotabaya Rajapaksa on Thursday, days after Mahinda Rajapaksa vacated the seat amid riots.

Perhaps the only factor that works for Ranil is his experience because this is his sixth term as PM. He could well go down in Sri Lankan history as the weakest PM the country ever had.

For, his United National Party (UNP) scored a duck in the 2020 parliamentary polls with Ranil, too, losing his seat. He later wormed his way into Parliament on the basis of his party's cumulative national votes.

Ranil's deputy Sajith Premadasa broke away from the UNP to form the Samagi Jana Balawegaya and become the main Opposition party in the country. Any interim government Ranil forms will have stability issues as each minister would assume he is no less than the PM.

It works for Gotabaya though for obvious reasons. However, the President's job is on the line as an all-party meeting decided to debate a no-confidence motion against Gotabaya in Parliament on Tuesday, May 17.

Ranil's appointment drew flak from various parties. "Wickremesinghe has no legitimacy in the current Parliament right from the beginning. He did not even win his constituency," said M A Sumanthiran, leader of the Tamil National Alliance.

"Ranil has always been the saviour of the Rajapaksa family. No citizen will accept palace conspiracies," said Anura Kumara Dissanayake, leader of the National People's Power Party and People's Liberation Front. P12

Green signal for state cyber security policy

MG CHETAN @Bengaluru

THE state Cabinet approved the Karnataka Cyber Security Policy 2022-27 at a meeting held on Thursday. The policy aims to strengthen capabilities of the state government and the IT industry in checking increasing cases of cyber crime in the state.

The policy has been introduced as Karnataka is among the states with highest level of internet penetration in the country. The current digitisation drives are further increasing the adoption of internet technology by citizens as well as by small and big business firms. Cyber security is of utmost concern to the IT and start-up industry that is a major source of employment and investment. The policy focuses on cyber security of citizens and industry in the state and proposes strategies to enhance the general level of cyber security across all sectors.

While cyber security is a growing concern as the number of cyber attacks like hacking, ransomware and cyber frauds are on the rise, the policy proposes citizen-centric awareness drives, boosting cyber security industry, state capacity building and centralised response mechanism. It aims at addressing cyber security challenges through five pillars - building awareness, skill-building, promoting research and innovation, promotion of industry and start-ups, and collaborations for capacity building. P4

GOVT TO BRING IN ANTI-CONVERSION LAW VIA ORDINANCE

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

THE Karnataka Government on Thursday decided to bring into effect the controversial Karnataka Protection of Right to Freedom of Religion Bill, 2021, more commonly known as Anti-Conversion Bill, through an ordinance. The decision was taken at a state Cabinet meeting held on Thursday.

It may be recalled that amid protest from Opposition party leaders in the Assembly, the Bill was passed at the legislative session held in Belagavi in December 2021. However, the ruling BJP did not have majority in the Legislative Council and the Bill was not placed during a session of the Council held in March and April. Despite the monsoon session of the state legislature scheduled to be held in June/July this year, the government has taken the ordinance route which has raised many eyebrows.

Speaking to reporters, Law Minister JC Madhuswamy said the government could not place the Bill before the Council for "some reason" during the last couple of sessions. "This is why we are taking the ordinance route for which we have taken approval. We will not change anything in the Bill from what was passed in the Assembly. There is a provision in the Constitution that we can bring it through Ordinance if it is not passed in the Houses. We will, however, pass the Bill in the coming sessions," he said. P4

Genome sequencing network will be given to neighbours: Modi

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

WITH the second Global Covid-19 Summit issuing a call on Thursday to enhance efforts to control the pandemic and prepare for future health emergencies, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said India will extend its Genomics Consortium network to its neighbourhood.

The consortium, called INSACOG, is a multi-lab, multi-agency network to monitor genomic variations in the Covid by sentinel sequencing. It has already contributed significantly to the global database on the virus, Modi pointed out.

Speaking at the Summit, US President Joe Biden urged the world to prevent complacency and to keep their political will strong. At least $50 million of the US government's $150 million three-year pledge to the Coalition for Epidemic Preparedness Innovations will support Covid vaccine research in addition to the development of other vaccines and countermeasures for future emerging infectious diseases.

Germany said it will contribute Euro 50 million towards the establishment of a new global health security and pandemic preparedness fund housed at the World Bank.

Lack of signage causes farmer's death

S LALITHA @Bengaluru

A 64-year-old farmer returning home after attending a wedding reception, suffered a fatal fall into a 15-foot underpass being constructed near Yelahanka railway station.

The contractor, carrying out the job for South Western Railway Zone, had not put up signage, barricades, sufficient lighting or any kind of intimation about the ongoing work at the spot, just 250 m from the railway station on Old Yehalanka Town side.

The body of Munikrishnappa, whose face was completely smashed when he fell on Sunday night, was removed by police and workers from the deep pit in the early hours of Monday (May 9). He is survived by his wife and two sons, aged 29 and 25. Work on the much-delayed Railway Under Bridge, that aims to provide connectivity between New Yelahanka Town and Old Yelahanka Town, began over a year ago and trespassing the tracks to reach the other side is a common occurrence. The senior citizen, too, appears to be one of them.

Mohan Kumar, his elder son, was staying with his parents at Venkatagiri Post in Devanahalli taluk. CONTINUED ON: P2

Big Banyan Tree roots get more space

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

IN order to make space for the banyan tree to grow, members of Big Banyan Tree Committee have suggested to the government that more land be acquired in the area and handed over to the horticulture department.

They have requested the acquisition of at least 2.5 acres of land in and around the over 400-year-old heritage Dodda Alada Mara. They have also stated that 2.5 acres of encroached land be cleared and handed back to the horticulture department, the custodian of the tree.

Noted environmentalists and retired forest department official, Dr A N Yellappa Reddy told TNIE that since the tree is growing rapidly, there is a need to get more land so as not to curtail its growth. The locals are convinced with the proposal and keen to part with land, but at a cost. "I have also suggested that funds be collected under CSR from companies and factories around. But if all this is difficult, we will go door-to-door seeking funds," he said.

The committee, comprising Dr M Sanjappa, ex-director of Botanical Survey of India and expert who worked on Kolkata's heritage banyan tree, was accompanied by Dr Balakrishna Gowda, Professor (retd), Head of Botany, GKVK.

The committee on Thursday suggested vesicular arbuscular mycorrhiza treatment (VAM) for regeneration and protection of fallen props. This was successfully implemented in Kolkata's Big Banyan Tree, and will be done for the first time here.

Firms must work for underground infra, says CM

Need to develop indigenous tech, says Bommai

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai said on Thursday that he hopes for more organisations to come forward to work with the government on developing underground infrastructure and technology.

Speaking at the inauguration for the two-day conference Nirmaana 2022, organised by the Institute for Research Development and Training of Construction Trades and Management (INSTRUCT), he said that tunnelling technology has advanced to adapt to various challenges, therefore, organisations must strive towards more challenging tasks. The conference which focuses on tunnelling and underground construction will last till Friday.

"Tunnelling in a city for a metro is a great challenge, but we have been doing it. However, there is a great need for utility engineering which is vital for this," he said. Further, he highlighted the need for tunnelling companies to prioritise the ground workers involved in the construction of underground infrastructure.

"The time has come for organisations like INSTRUCT to actively participate with government agencies in terms of technology, management and timely construction. I would like to welcome INSTRUCT in participating, both in letter and spirit, on the ground, so that we may all work together," he said. INSTRUCT acts as a centre for training engineers, especially those involved in construction as well as the organisers of the event. He also said that while there is a lot of global technology in Karnataka, there is a need to develop indigenous technology which will be significant for the country.

Vajpayee stadium to be repaired in a month

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike Chief Commissioner Tushar Girinath has said that the damaged Atal Bihari Vajpayee Stadium will be repaired in a month will be completed within a month without any strain on the Palike's purse.

Girinath, during an inspection of the Bommanahalli zone on Thursday said that the stadium in the HSR Layout was damaged due to heavy rain last week which would be repaired within a month and instructed the officials to finish the rest of the stadium immediately.

Two tensile roofs in the stadium had collapsed following heavy rain in the city, which came under scrutiny because the incident took place only two months after the stadium's inauguration by Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai in March. "An inquiry is still underway into the collapse of the roofs and we are still trying to understand if there was a design flaw or due to some other reason," he said.

Besides, the Chief Commissioner also inspected other works in the area including those aimed at mitigating rain-related problems like the construction of side drains and bridges/road raising to allow free flow of rainwater. He said that a permanent solution must found to address problems occurring during the rainy season.

"Cleaning, redesigning and other works involving drains is currently underway, especially in areas like HSR Layout which is a low-lying area and prone to inundation. To drain the water, we bring in tankers. However, work to resolve the issue permanently is underway," he said.

HE had rushed to the spot to collect his father's body. He told TNIE that efforts to tarnish his father as a drunkard who fell to his death, were completely false. "The place is dark and the pit is deep. It is utter negligence on the part of those carrying out the job who left it open. There was no security staffer to warn anyone. How was it not sealed?" he queried.

Adding to his agony was talk that his father was intoxicated. "No one in my family consumes alcohol, especially not my father. He hated its smell. He had attended the reception of a relative at the choultry inside Rail Wheel Factory, and was on his way home. We have filed an FIR with Railway Police so my father's death does not go in vain," Kumar added.

"A person who was drunk had fallen to his death," an official source said.

Work has halted at this end of the underpass, following the death. When this reporter visited the spot, new banners had come up on both sides of the bridge about work being in progress and trespass being prohibited. A local said, "Though there were temporary barricades of asbestos sheets erected at the entrance leading to the bridge, they would often be removed to permit trucks with construction material to pass through."

A shopkeeper requesting anonymity, said, "All the warning boards have come up a day after the death. Why couldn't the Railways do anything earlier?"

Campaign launched to quit smoking habit

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

A unique campaign was flagged off Thursday in Bengaluru during which cigarette and bidi butts at public places were collected to expose the rampant smoking in these areas and urge the Union government to amend the Cigarettes and Other Tobacco Products Act (COTPA).

Former MP HT Sangliana said, "Though smoking in public places is restricted, we find the rule being flouted risking the lives of innocents by forcing them into passive smoking. We must urge the government to take a step towards improving public health by amending COTPA 2003". The campaign was led by Consortium for Tobacco Free Karnataka in association with 32 coalition members.

COTPA which came into effect in 2003 prohib- its smoking in public places. The members opined that a fine of Rs 200 is too small to act as a deterrent for those who smoke in public places.

Former Bengaluru Mayor Gangambike M said, "If the legal age for consuming tobacco is increased from the present 18 years to 21 years, we can prevent our teenagers from tobacco abuse."

Appealing to citizens of Bengaluru, organisations and institutions to collect the cigarette and bidi butts in their neighbourhoods in bags, renowned Oncologist Dr Ramesh Bilimagga, President of Consortium for Tobacco Free Karnataka said, "If the COTPA Bill is passed, the fine for smoking in public places will be Rs 2,000, and the legal age to purchase tobacco products will go up to 21 years".

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

13th May: Today's stars favour all Taurean types - everyone who likes to keep the world neat and tidy. If you're in a mood to make a mess then you'd better stay out of the way for fear of creating more chaos than you can cope with. Capricorns and Virgos should also be on a high, by the way, so there's plenty of good luck to go round.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
There's a restless air today, and although there's no need for you to be caught up in what's going on, colleagues may involve you in their plans to travel or pursue a favourite new pastime. Ambitious Ariens are going to be on a roll over the next few days, so make the most of it.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
The planets are completing a series of harmonious alignments to your sign, and their beneficial effect will administer a general boost to your energy. Adopt an optimistic attitude to all your affairs and you'll make the most of the prevailing Sun-Moon angles.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
You've every reason to look forward to a positive and productive period. Watch out for a minor crisis later in the day, though, perhaps prompted by a careless friend or colleague, and symbolised by the approaching encounter between the Sun and Moon.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
The people who will be most helpful to you today and tomorrow are likely to be those you don't know very well or whom you have met only recently. Your serious attitude to relationships can be rather attractive, but friends who think they know you best could pick up the wrong end of the stick.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
You could have too much on your plate, but certain discreet moves can only enhance your professional prospects, so do whatever needs to be done. Yet remember that integrity is a quality that is necessary if you want to retain your colleagues' respect.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
You might be seized by a bout of anxiety regarding your career, or some other worldly ambition, but minor problems will pass quite quickly. Fortunately, you realise that, in the last resort, nothing will detract from your success. In point of fact, this is a moment for pleasure and self-indulgence.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
There's a great deal happening behind the scenes, not all of it to your liking. You'll throw some light on a confusing situation by drawing other people's attention to the facts. But there's no guarantee that they'll listen - at least not until next week.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
This is a constructive moment. Both Solar and Lunar alignments raise the stress level, so make at least some attempt to see partners' points of view, otherwise you'll needlessly offend those who care for you. If you look after other people's interests, they'll take more care with yours.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Now that the weekend is approaching, you may feel like slowing down a little. Yet, even if you haven't got much on your plate, you're bound to be caught up in some of your friends' hectic plans. You may also be in line for a wonderful windfall - and about time, you might say.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Although it would be foolish to imagine that there'll be no hitches today, you'll feel immensely satisfied if you focus on developing your creative talents. A sense of your own destiny will boost your confidence and stand you in good stead. Safe to say, this is one of your special times of year.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
You may be tempted into some sort of rash speculation, but do bear in mind the fact that it's all too easy to throw away hard-earned money. Be wary of apparently ideal offers and examine all the details with great care. And perhaps you should open up to life's mystical possibilities as well.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Sometimes your lack of self-confidence prevents you from making the most of your imaginative ideas, but under today's illuminating planetary picture you'd be doing yourself an injustice if you kept your thoughts to yourself. You could also be taking responsibility for a new group or social event.

Woman robbed of ornaments worth ₹3 lakh

PRAVEEN KUMAR @ Bengaluru

A 49-year-old woman who was travelling in her neighbour's car to learn driving skills was robbed of her gold ornaments worth Rs 3 lakh by two scooter-borne armed robbers on the service road of new Bengaluru-Mysuru highway that is coming up between Ramanagara and Mysuru on Tuesday evening. The victim, Sumathi Amudhan, works as an accountant.

Sumathi had enrolled in a driving school to learn car driving. In order to improve her driving skills, she took the Nano car of her neighbour identified as Ravi Kumar. She, Kumar and other family members were on the service road at Bilagumba cross.

After an hour of driving, when they were returning, two unidentified scooter-borne armed robbers came and stopped the car. They came near the victims and threatened to attack them with lethal weapons. The attackers threatened to chop off Sumathi's hands if she failed to hand over her gold ornaments to them.

They also attempted to attack Kumar with an iron rod. The victim initially removed her 48 gram mangalasutra and handed it over to the accused. The accused found gold bangles on her hand and demanded it, threatening to chop off the hands of other people in the car. After the victim removed her gold bangles and gave it to the accused, the latter pulled the car keys and threw it at a distance before escaping on their white colour scooter.

The victim and others after managing to find the car keys approached the police around 7:30pm and filed a complaint.

"The accused are in the age-group of 25 years. They communicated in Kannnada with the victims. We are trying to collect more details of the accused duo based on the CCTV footage in the vicinity," said an officer who is part of the investigation.

A case of robbery under Section 392 of the Indian Penal Code has been registered against the accused.

Trade body welcomes relaxing of booster dose

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

IT companies, manufacturing units and students from Karnataka heaved a sigh of relief after the Union government on Thursday allowed citizens travelling overseas to get the precautionary vaccine shot before the stipulated nine-month waiting period.

Bangalore Chamber of Industry and Commerce (BCIC) had written to State Health Minister Dr K Sudhakar requesting the same. "We are happy that our representation to the Karnataka government in March this year to reduce the time gap was accepted by the Central government, and an announcement was made to that effect today. We welcome this move wholeheartedly as it will open up travel between countries promoting business and trade," said Dr L Ravindran, Senior Vice-President, BCIC and MD, Wealthmax Group of Companies.

Several employees and students were unable to fly to many countries in the EU as they wanted incoming Indian travellers to be vaccinated with both doses of vaccine, and 270 days had not elapsed from the last dose. However, in India, even if an adult was vaccinated with the second dose in August 2021, the 270 day period would lapse, and would be considered unvaccinated.

NO LOCAL BODY POLLS WITHOUT FIXING OBC RESERVATION

Govt side-steps SC order on holding elections; panel to give report on political status of OBCs

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka government is unlikely to hold elections to local bodies, including the BBMP, without fixing the quota for OBCs. "We are not ready to go for elections without providing quota for OBCs, instead we have decided to go with an appeal before the apex court, seeking at least three months' time. We know the repercussions of going for elections without OBC quota," remarked Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister J C Madhuswamy, briefing the press after the cabinet meeting here on Thursday. "If we get time, we will fix the quota for OBCs and also implement delimitation of constituencies," he added.

The Supreme Court is not likely to accept the report on socio-economic backwardness of OBCs as it has insisted on considering political backwardness for the quota. Following this, the Karnataka government set up a commission headed by Justice Bhaktavatsala five days ago, which is expected to give its report on political representation of OBCs in three months.

CM Basavaraj Bommai arrives at Vidhana Soudha to attend the Cabinet meeting, in Bengaluru on Thursday | NAGARAJA GADEKAL

"On our request, the commission is likely to give its report well ahead of the time frame, as the deputy commissioners concerned have been asked to cooperate," Madhuswamy explained.

He was hopeful that the SC would give time to fix the quota, as it has ordered that elections be held in two weeks' time, and a Special Leave Petition (SLP) has been posted on July 12 for hearing. Meanwhile, two or three petitions filed by private parties and OBC organisations will come up for hearing before the Karnataka High Court on May 17 with regard to BBMP, and the government is keenly awaiting the order to make its next move.

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, briefing the press earlier in the day, stressed that a writ petition by Madhya Pradesh will come up before the Supreme Court on Tuesday, for review of its order to conduct polls to local bodies in two weeks, with anticipation of being given more time.

"All legal efforts are on to provide reservation in local bodies elections for OBCs. The Madhya Pradesh government had constituted a commission and submitted its report to court, and has also filed a review petition. There are reports submitted by many committees in Karnataka on political reservation, and we are mulling their use as well to present our stand," he explained.

The state Cabinet on Thursday authorised Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai to appoint the next chief secretary. Chief Secretary P Ravikumar retires this month. Speaking to the media, Madhuswamy said nine senior IAS officers are eligible for the post. "It depends on the CM as to whom he will appoint... but it will be done at the earliest," the minister added. Ravikumar was appointed as chief secretary in December 2020. Some of the senior IAS officers eligible for the top post are Additional Chief Secretaries Vandita Sharma, ISN Prasad, Rajneesh Goel, Pradeep Singh Karola and Yogendra Tripathi. ENS

Facelift for 287 towns under AMRUT scheme

ENS @ Bengaluru

IN a poll year, the state Cabinet on Thursday approved projects to develop 287 towns under the Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban Transformation (AMRUT) at a cost of Rs 9,327 crore. The cost will be shared by the State and Union governments along with the concerned urban local bodies.

Speaking to reporters, Law Minister JC Madhuswamy said towns that have a population of more than 1 lakh population will be developed under this scheme. Of the Rs 9,327 crore, the Centre's share is Rs 4,617 crore. The State Government will give Rs 3,692 crore and remaining will be borne by the ULBs. In the next five years, all these selected towns will get a facelift with drinking water and underground drainage schemes and other amenities. These towns do not include corporations or municipalities.

Other than this, under Swachh Bharat mission, Rs 1,292 crore--which is the State Government's share--has got Cabinet nod.

Madhuswamy said at present the government is giving jobs on compensatory grounds to family members of SCs/STs in case of death of the parents or senior family member due to atrocity. "We have relaxed the rules even for those who died due to atrocity. Now, they can apply for a job within two years as against earlier one year. Also, daughters or widows of the deceased can also apply," he said.

The Cabinet also repealed Section 387 of the Karnataka Town Municipal Corporation Act. "This means people constructing houses in their farm or single house need not have to get approval from the town planning authority, but can get it done at the local gram panchayat. This is not compulsory. However, builders and those who want to construct more houses in one piece of land have to get approval from town planning authority," the minister said.

Ordinance move unconstitutional: Cong

THE Bill proposes imprisonment up to three to five years along with a penalty of Rs 25,000 for forced conversion. It proposes imprisonment up to three to 10 years for converting a minor, woman or an SC/ST person along with a penalty of Rs 50,000. Mass conversion by force will attract three to ten years in jail with a penalty of Rs 1 lakh. Inter-religious marriages, where religious conversions have taken place for the convenience of marriage, will get legal sanctity only if the conversion was brought to the notice of a district magistrate 30 days in advance or 30 days post-conversion. Congress leaders slammed the government's move and called it unconstitutional. Former Chief Minister and Leader of Opposition in the Assembly Siddaramiah had earlier stated that the Congress will scrap the Bill if the party comes to power.

Meanwhile, Rev Peter Machado, Metropolitan Archbishop of Bengaluru and President of Karnataka Region Catholic Bishop's Council in a press statement stated, "This is sad and surely will affect the harmonious relationship that we enjoy with members of all communities in Karnataka." He said there have been no incidents of forced conversion. "There is no doubt that fringe elements and groups will try to create problems for members of our community as we have seen in the past, and government has no control over them." he added. He also urged the Governor not to give his nod to the Bill.

Cyber Security Policy aims to woo investment in Tier2/3 cities

THE Centre introduced National Cyber Security Policy in 2013 following which states like Haryana, and Tamil Nadu came out with their own cyber security policies. The Karnataka Cyber Security Policy focuses on attracting investments, particularly in Tier 2/3 cities by developing clusters, strengthening the cyber security eco-system and technology leadership through policy intervention.

As part of skill-building, a specialised course in cyber security in higher education within the framework of the NEP will be introduced.

A virtual cyber department would also be set up for strengthening practical skills among students and to provide an experience of detection and mitigation of cyber attacks in an interactive technology environment. A 'Use Case Clearing House' would be set up for the identification of research problems for researchers/start-ups to convert into Proof of Concept.

'Top brass will decide on Cabinet revamp in 3-4 days'

MYSURU: Senior BJP leader and former chief minister BS Yediyurappa said the party central leadership will take a final decision on the much-awaited Cabinet expansion in the next 3-4 days. Speaking to the media here on Thursday, the Lingayat strongman said that the party top brass will announce the names of those legislators who will be part of the Cabinet. When asked if his son and party state vice-president BY Vijayendra will be made a minister, Yediyurappa said he was not aware of it. He refused to react to a question posed by reporters on the fate of 17 MLAs from Congress and JDS who had joined the BJP and were made ministers in the BJP cabinet. He declined to comment whether they will continue as ministers. Reacting to Congress Legislature Party leader Siddaramaiah's remark that the BJP state government was the most corrupt and Basavaraj Bommai was a weak chief minister, Yediyurappa said, "It was Siddaramaiah who was weak as CM. He headed the most corrupt government. Everyone knows the corruption that took place during his tenure." ENS

DKS, captain of sinking ship, says Renukacharya

DAVANAGERE: Chief Minister's political secretary MP Renukacharya on Thursday said that KPCC president DK Shivakumar is a captain of a sinking ship and all the allegations made by him are baseless. Addressing the media at Honnali, he said that the Congress will disappear from Karnataka after the 2023 Assembly polls and the BJP will retain power. Taking a dig at Shivakumar, Renukacharya said that the former was dreaming of becoming the next CM of the state. He also said that he had no role in the resignation of DGP Ravindranath, who was investigating the fake caste certificate issue involving the MLA's family. "The allegations made in this regard by Shivakumar are false," he said. ENS

Probe into land grab charges against MLA sought

CHITRADURGA: Former minister H Anjaneya on Thursday demanded a probe by an independent agency into the alleged land grabbing charges levied against KSRTC chairman and Holalkere MLA M Chandrappa. Anjaneya alleged that the BJP government and the police were trying to cover-up the issue. "If this is done, the innocent who have lost their land will not get any justice," he said. He alleged that the power-of-attorney given by one Sridhar to Nagaraj was used after the death of Sridhar by MLA Chandrappa and his family for registration of the land. "Based on the complaint lodged by Padmaja, sister of Sridhar, the court has directed the police to file an FIR against Chandrappa and family, which is the first victory for the aggrieved family," he said, alleging that Chandrappa was trying to influence the witnesses in the case. Election to four Rajya Sabha seats on June 10

BENGALURU: The Election Commission of India has issued notification for Rajya Sabha polls in various states. In Karnataka, elections will be held for four seats. The polling and counting of votes will be held on June 10. In Karnataka, the Congress will get only one seat because it will need 46 votes to send a candidate to the Rajya Sabha, the BJP will get two seats but may find it difficult to send the third candidate. The JDs will not have the numbers to send a candidate and may have to depend on the Congress or the BJP. For the Congress which supported JDS to send former PM Deve Gowda to the Rajya Sabha last time, they could ask for the JDS to return the favour and get its support for their candidate. ENS

Tweet war on social media as Ramya, DKS slug it out

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

A full-blown social media war has been raging between Congress heavyweights — former MP Ramya and KPCC president DK Shivakumar — sparked off over whether MB Patil met minister Dr CN Ashwath Narayan or not. Ramya's tweets put Congress leaders in a spot, especially when the former MP hit back at those who had put up uncharitable comments, and tweeting about the Youth Congress president, "This boy @nalapad is the honourable IYCKarnataka president (on bail) son of MLA Harris, and he's questioning my integrity. Wah!" In another tweet, she said, "After I quit, 'she duped the congress of 8 crores & ran away' was planted in the news esp Kannada channels, in an attempt to destroy my credibility. I didn't run away. I resigned for personal reasons. I certainly did not dupe the party of 8 crores. My mistake was staying silent..."

And yet another, "So the 'office' has circulated these messages among the congress leaders & volunteers asking them troll me. Save yourself the trouble-I'll do it myself. @srivatsayb @DKShivakumar"

Ramya slammed DK Shivakumar, saying it was not he who had helped boost her career, but Rahul Gandhi, in response to Shivakumar's social media team's claim. On Thursday, Shivakumar tried to extricate himself, saying MB Patil and Ramya were both close to him. "What has misfired I am not sure," he said. Earlier, the KPCC president had tweeted, "don't break the ladder which you used to climb". The Congress social media cell also asked Ramya where she was missing.

As expected, Ashwath Narayan and MB Patil watched the developments, amused.

PSI SCAM

DySP in net, netas interfere with probe

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

CID officials on Thursday detained Deputy SP Shanthakumar in connection with the police sub-inspector (PSI) recruitment scam. However, CID officials refused to confirm his detention to TNIE, and neither did DG&IGP Praveen Sood.

According to sources, Shanthakumar was recently transferred from the recruitment wing to Internal Security Division after his name cropped up in the scam. He is alleged to have allowed tampering of OMR sheets of the candidates. It is said that Shanthakumar served in the recruitment wing for more than 12 years, and had joined the police department as a constable of the City Armed Reserve (CAR) in 2006. He took the Reserve Sub-Inspector (RSI) examination in 2006 under the in-service quota, and cleared it. He completed his probation in Tumakuru, served as RSI with CAR and ISD, before he was transferred to recruitment. He was promoted as inspector and DySP while serving in the recruitment wing itself.

Meanwhile, CID officials said investigation is not on the right path as many political leaders are intervening and influencing the probe.

Consultation drags on for Lokayukta after 100 days

YATHIRAJU @ Bengaluru

THE delay in appointment of Lokayukta by the government has raised several questions though the process of consultation has been done much earlier. The post has been lying vacant for more than 100 days after the tenure of Justice P Vishwanatha Shetty ended on January 27, 2022.

The consultation process for the Upa Lokayukta - II ended in a week's time by appointing Justice KN Phaneendra, former judge of Karnataka HC, on March 22. According to the Karnataka Lokayukta Act, the Lokayukta should be appointed on the advice of the CM in consultation with the Chief Justice of the HC, the Chairman, Council, Speaker, Assembly and the Leaders of the Opposition. A member of the consultation process said that the consultation for the appointment was done by the government much in advance before the consultation process was taken up for appointment of Upa Lokayukta-II.

A former judge of the HC was shortlisted by the CM. Probably, his consent was sought after the proposal was sent to the governor for appointment. The former judge might have refused the proposal, the member said.

Speaker Vishweshwar Hegde Kageri said that he has forwarded names in a sealed cover. However, Chief Secretary P Ravi Kumar said that the consultation process is still underway, when asked about the delay.

'Janata Jaladhaare' campaign to end today

BENGALURU: The JDS' 'Janata Jaladhaare' campaign organised to highlight the water issues across the state will culminate in a rally near Nelamangala on Friday. The campaign, apart from airing the state's water woes, is also an attempt by the JDS to organise its rank and files to fight the 2023 Assembly polls. The campaign began on April 16. Ganga puje and Ganga aarti will be conducted on Friday and a team of 20 priests from Varanasi will perform the rituals. JDS leader and former CM HD Kumara-swamy said that an oath will be taken during the convention to safeguard the water bodies in and around Bengaluru. He also said that all pending irrigation projects will be completed if the party gets a clear mandate in 2023.

A house for Mr Surjewala— hunt on ahead of 'Battle 2023'

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @ Bengaluru

WITH elections to Karnataka Assembly just under a year away, the Congress is leaving no stone unturned to return to power. According to sources, AICC general secretary in-charge of Karnataka Randeep Singh Surjewala has decided to set up a base in Bengaluru and spend 10-15 days in the state. According to Karnataka Pradesh Congress Committee (KPCC) sources, Surjewala is looking for a house for rent in Bengaluru, close to the party office on Queens Road.

In 2020, Surjewala was appointed as general secretary in charge of Karnataka. He also heads the media wing of the party. "He (Surjewala) is looking for a house on rent. He seems to be showing interest in an upscale flat near Mount Carmel College. At present he is busy with the Congress' Chintan Shivir in Rajasthan. After the meeting, he is likely to visit Bengaluru and finalise the property. It is a spacious flat with ample space for meetings," KPCC sources added. KPCC will bear the expense, the sources added.

The Congress is likely to announce its candidates for the 2023 Assembly elections by the end of this year. "This is a tedious job and requires lots of exercise, including travelling to different parts of Karnataka. Surjewala has been told by the high command to focus on Karnataka. Surjewala will be in Karnataka, spending at least for 10 to 15 days every month, in the run up to the polls. At present, when he visits Bengaluru, he stays in a hotel or Kumara Krupa guest house," KPCC sources added. With murmurs of rift between KPCC chief Shivakumar and CLP leader Siddaramaiah, the party top brass seems to be closely watching the developments in the state unit.

"The gap between these leaders will affect the party's prospects. Surjewala's presence will make a big difference. There is a need to fight the polls unitedly," sources said.

The Tirupathur district administration on Thursday decided to call off the much-touted Ambur Biryani Festival slated to be held from May 13 to 14 in the town citing heavy rain forecast. The decision comes after a few parties raised objections to exclusion of beef from the festival

Financial crisis looms over T'gana

RBI declines nod for auction of securities; drastic cuts likely on TRS govt populist schemes

V V BALAKRISHNA @Hyderabad

A MAJOR financial crisis looms large on the TRS government in the State. The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has denied permission to the State government to participate in the auction for open market borrowings scheduled on May 17.

The chilling implication of RBI's decision is that the government would have less money in its coffers to fund various ongoing welfare schemes at a time when the TRS is preparing for Assembly elections next year.

The RBI's decision must have left a bitter taste in the mouth of the honchos of the finance department when they could not find the name of Telangana in the schedule issued by the Central Bank on Thursday for the auctioning of securities of the State governments on May 17.

SPENDING CUT LIKELY

● Farm loan waiver ● Dalit Bandhu ● ₹3 lakh cash for 2BHK scheme ● Mana Ooru - Mana Badi ● Construction of TIMS

NO CUT

● Salaries to government employees ● Asara pensions ● Rythu Bandhu ● Interest payments

Only three States AP, Maharashtra and Rajasthan are allowed to participate in the auction. As per the loan calendar, Telangana is supposed to raise ₹2,000 crore on May 17. According to the indicative calendar of the RBI, the total loans to be raised by TS in April and May are ₹8,000 crore. The chances of the State raising loans in the next 10 months of this financial year are remote, as the Centre is not satisfied with the replies furnished by the State on the loans it had been raising. The State may not send further replies to the Centre as it believes the freeze on raising loans was a vindictive measure towards the "performing" Telangana state.

"There is no approval for us to raise the loan on May 17. Let us see how many days the Centre will prevent us from raising loans," a top official told TNIE.

The State proposed to raise ₹53,000 crore through open market borrowings. With no loans, the State is planning to mop up its own resources to the tune of ₹30,000 crore to ₹40,000 crore. However, increasing own revenue is a herculean task. The official sources admitted that the government may have to go in for a drastic cut in expenditure on some of the populist schemes. The officials, however, clarified that there were no plans to stop the payment of salaries of the State government employees.

After Lanka's Asani, India's turn to name cyclone not far

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

THE formation of tropical cyclones is not new and neither is their naming. But this one - Asani - has caught the attention of many. This is not just because of its movement, the heavy rainfall and the drop in mercury levels. But because of its name.

It has been named by Sri Lanka and means Raat (night). That is not all, officials from the India Meteorological Department (IMD) said with the increasing formation of cyclones, India's turn to name the cyclone, which is fifth in the list, will come soon.

As per the World Meteorological Organisation's National Meteorological and Hydrological Services, 13 countries suggest list of names for cyclones forming in the Bay of Bengal and Arabian Sea, which are to be used alphabetically country wise.

The list of countries in the panel include - Bangladesh, India, Iran, Maldives, Myanmar, Oman, Pakistan, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Sri Lanka, Thailand, the United Arab Emirates and Yemen.

"Asani is the first cyclone of this year and as per order, it was Sri Lanka's turn to name it. The next will be named by Thailand as Sitrang. The next name suggested by India is Tej and it will come fifth in line. But going by the increasing formation of cyclones over the years, the turn of India is not far behind," a senior IMD official told TNIE.

Bengaluru temperature drops further

The temperature in Bengaluru city has dipped further. According to the IMD, the maximum temperature in the city was 23 degrees Celsius. At HAL and Kempegowda International airports, the maximum temperatures recorded on Thursday were 23.8 and 26.4 degrees Celsius. The IMD has forecast cloudy sky, with strong winds and rainfall.

Bullock pair sacrificed at Pavagada fair

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Tumakuru

DESPITE a petition by residents, a pair of bullocks was sacrificed in Bellibatlu village of Pavagada taluk on Tuesday evening. The accused sacrificed the bullocks for the village deity Chowdeshwari, pictures and video clippings of which went viral on social media. Animal sacrifice of animals was the norm for several decades, with a section of people sacrificing buffaloes, and when it was banned by the administration, they switched to other animals, sources told TNIE. The annual fair was conducted after a gap of three years, owing to the pandemic.

Arasikere police have taken some of the accused into custody for interrogation. "The sacrifice occurred at a secluded place far away from the village," they maintained, expressing their helplessness to check it, despite being informed about the petition. "I have informed the Superintendent of Police to take action against the guilty, following the report of the tahsildar who visited the spot," Deputy Commissioner Y S Patil said.

Activist seeks probe into institutions

THEY had stayed in various halls in Bengaluru for 48 days during the Covid-19 lockdown between March third week to May first week in 2020 through five private caterers, hotels and private organizations.

KC Rajanna, the social activist who has filed the complaint, said the then Bengaluru Police Commissioner Bhaskar Rao had given a list of only 71,617 migrant building and other construction workers from all the zones of Bengaluru. The list was drawn based on information availed through all the police stations and handed over to C&OWWB. However, the board has claimed to have provided food far beyond this list, he said.

The social activist has alleged in his complaint that C&OWWB randomly listed the number of workers without referring to any list of migrant workers from task forces concerned, that too without mentioning their names, addresses, contact numbers and other details of each worker — which is how the number of workers was inflated to between 2.50 lakh workers and 3.50 lakh workers per day throughout the 48-day first lockdown period.

BHASKAR RAO'S LIST

The then Police Commissioner, Bhaskar Rao, had given a list of only 71,617 building and other construction workers during Covid the first lockdown, including 4,497 in the East Zone, 5,456 in West, 2,694 in North, 6,140 in South, 2,133 in Central, 36,082 in Whitefield, 11,147 in North East, and 3,468 in South East.

Rajanna has alleged in his complaint that fake vouchers and work orders for food kits from four private organisations were generated, claiming to have provided food kits to these many workers, at a cost ranging from Rs 22.85 to Rs 100 for each meal or kit fixed on the basis of the menu chart. He has urged for probe into the then chief executive officer of C&OWWB, IAS officer Jyothsna, and in-charge secretary, also an IAS officer, Akram Pasha and other officers, workers of the board.

"It took me two years, to get 8200 page documents through RTI, and I have provided 250 pages of documents regarding irregularities to the Lokayukta, including work orders and vouchers given to all these private organisations, including Sri Vathsa caterers, Shankar nagar, Elaan infra, Puttenahalli JP Nagar, Compass Group India Support Services Pvt Ltd, Mahadevapura, Pragna Sagar Hotels & Resorts Pvt Ltd, Bommanahalli, all from Bengaluru. There has to be an investigation on the amount of tax paid by these private institutions in purchasing food grains, oil, LPG, and the number of workers involved in cooking," Rajanna said.

INDIAN EXPRESS IS NOT AN INDUSTRY. IT IS A MISSION.

— Ramnath Goenka

THERE'S A NEED TO CALL OUT KERALA CLERIC'S MISOGYNY

The uncharitable utterances of M T Abdulla Musaliyar, senior Muslim scholar and a member of the mushawara (consultation body) of the Sunni organisation Samastha Kerala Jam-Iyyathul Ulema, against the presence of a girl at an open stage along with male figures seem to be out of sync with what has been happening within the community for the past one decade. Musaliyar chided the organisers of the madrassa event for inviting the Class 10 student for receiving a memento for educational excellence. Instead, he wanted her father to be called to receive the prize on her behalf. Such misogynistic outbursts on part of the Muslim clergy in Kerala against women's presence at public platforms are not new. But what makes Musaliyar's remark disheartening is the fact that it eclipses the giant strides the community, especially the Sufi Sunnis, made in the field of education. The Sufi Sunnis were often derided for the orthodox stand they took in denying education for women. The Samastha had even issued diktats against women pursuing education. But the Sunnis have now made significant progress in all spheres and established their own colleges for girls.

Critics of Islam may find Musaliyar's remark handy as it is line with their assertion that the religion is basically anti-women. The episode will make ultra-orthodox sections also happy, but it is indeed a frustrating development for those who have been fighting for gender rights and modernity within the community. The cleric's action has attracted strong condemnation from Governor Arif Mohammed Khan, who also bemoaned the fact no political leader, either from the ruling front or the opposition, has dared to call out the misogynistic tendencies still prevalent in sections of society.

However, in a welcome move, the child rights commission has taken up the matter suo motu and sought an explanation from the Samastha. Interpretations of scriptures have shown that Islam does provide room for women in all its discourses. Musaliyar's expression of irritation has undermined the efforts Sunni groups have made to shed the anti-women tag. It would take time for the community to recover from the backlash created by an avoidable controversy.

OLYMPIC HIGH TO EMBARRASSING LOW

Doping in India has always been a big menace. Athletes have been stripped of their medals—both national and international. There have been occasions when entire federations (weightlifting) have been banned or fined over excessive positive tests. India may not figure on top of the Olympic medals table, but on the World Anti-Doping Agency list of adverse analytical finding (AAF) and anti-doping rule violation (ADRV) lists, India is on the podium. On the 2019 ADRV list, India with 152 cases is third in the world behind Russia (167) and Italy (157). In fact, going by testing authority—National Anti-Doping Agency—India tops the 2019 AAF list with 225 positive cases ahead of the US Anti-Doping Agency (194) and Russian National Anti-Doping Organisation (85). The NADA sample collection stood at 4,004, while USADA collected 11,213 and RNAO 9,516.

India's tainted past keeps raising its ugly head time and again. Top athletes including Olympians and Asian medallists are testing positive. The latest is Kamalpreet Kaur, the first woman to breach the 65-metre mark in discus. She finished a creditable sixth at the delayed Tokyo 2020 Olympics last year. Just a few days later, another high-profile athlete has apparently gone 'missing' allegedly for evading dope tests.

Despite the Athletics Federation of India saying it has been closely monitoring its top players who are in the national camp, positive cases keep cropping up. There has been a case involving a thrower who had been part of the national camp until testing positive. Among Olympic sports in India, athletics and weightlifting are notorious for doping. There are instances when the involvement of coaches and support staff has surfaced. In a recent NADA release, an order revealed how coaches provide multi-vitamins and injections to young athletes. With more money, job security and fame at stake, athletes are ready to take that risk. Low collection of samples during lockdown too has added to this menace. What seemed appalling are the ways in which athletes were trying to defend themselves—from feigning ignorance to manipulation, contaminated supplements and conspiracy theories. Forget the general public, what's shocking is how NADA's hearing panels fall for it.

If the Congress has to get out of this morass, it must take a standing leap. A touch of surprise, even the buzz of a minor shock treatment, would not be amiss

ONE SLOGAN FOR UDAIPUR: CARPE DIEM

SANTWANA BHATTACHARYA

Executive Editor, The New Indian Express

SOUMYADIP SINHA

What brainstorms will hit Udaipur as the Congress pantheon engages in collective contemplation this weekend? Rahul Gandhi and senior leaders will be on view riding a train into town even as you read this—a nice touch for the photographers, indicating a desire for a public connect rather than one of reclusion. But the mode will soon shift to self-reflection. That is the idea, after all, even if it is accompanied by the sounds of robust debate and controlled dissent.

Over the three days of the chintan shivir, the temperatures outside in southern Rajasthan will be in the 42–43 degree Celsius range. The air will be partly cloudy, both inside and outside. But if the churning of the oceans does not throw up anything more than a cipher—a relapse into the old ways of manufactured consensus, delivered via bland, pasteurised statements by party spokespersons—a real chance would have been lost.

For, the fact is that the present organismic crisis of the Congress—which attends both its body and mind, its structure and function—is so deep that there is an opening in what has hitherto been largely a closed space. Despite the bad name the excessive control of the Indira years brought, the party organisation is traditionally not a closed, dictatorial system—its satraps and second-rung leaders were partly autonomous entities, with their own mini-ecosystems, independent trajectories, ambitions, friends in the media, all set in a slightly out-of-control framework of endless factional feuding. A picture that generated ennui but one that was, paradoxically, a sign of its vitality, a mode of being.

It was the centre that held it all up that was a cryptic enclosure. And the torchlight that is shining now is making that space visible, subject to scrutiny and open to wider claimancy.

This is a positive moment, and must be seized. Neither the First Family nor its army of loyalists need to view this openness with alarm, or as a veto against it. Sonia Gandhi, as interim president, has of late been seen making concerted moves to bring things towards a resolution, using all the political skills she has acquired over the last two-and-a-half decades. That presence has enduring value, as even Prashant Kishor's idea that she continue as UPA chairperson suggested.

Rahul and Priyanka Gandhi are not about to be deleted out of the centrality of their presence either—both have a future, in the immediate sense and over the long term, as core Congress figures speaking to a new India. Enfolding another vital presence into that space will not automatically mean something bad—instead, it has all the chances of vastly improving the party's health indices.

The Congress labours under, and exudes, a sense of inertia and stasis. It is usually found to be unable to gather its wits around on most counts. Nor is its ability to self-inflict damage any breaking news. If the party has to get out of this morass, it must take a standing leap. A touch of surprise, even the buzz of a minor shock treatment, would not be amiss.

But how and what? Leaving aside the centre—the touchy question of party presidentship—what must be examined is its relation to the vast political landmasses out there in the 'regions'. It's a no-brainer that the GOP's visible meltdown in recent years has much to do with two consecutive, and demoralising, losses in Lok Sabha elections. But there's something that preceded that, and became accentuated by the electoral gloom of recent years. That is an extraordinarily high degree of attrition it underwent in its state units.

> By looking at a stasis-ridden centre as if it's a zone unto itself, the Congress may be looking at the wrong place—and making the wrong diagnosis. This is the time for the party to think federally, so to speak, right at its centre

The Congress is, ultimately, not made up by its centre but by its provincial extensions. It's a conglomeration of local, regional satraps, if you will. A kind of centrifugal force has been at play for years, pushing mini-satellites further and further away, till they become full-fledged planets. This has been so from the days when the likes of Sharad Pawar and Mamata Banerjee exited. And with each departure, a section of the party's support base went. The bigger the leader, the worse the hole in the vote bank. Andhra Pradesh, Assam, Maharashtra and West Bengal hosted buzzing party ecosystems at one time—each was stilled one by one.

In the era of the earlier Gandhis, the universal legacy vote was substantially intact. Indira Gandhi, as astute as you want, had the capacity to absorb the older splits, and recreate the party out of that pan-India vote—even when she was thrown out of power. That vote still survives but the capacity to pivot on that to create a stunning new story is substantially reduced. So it is essential that the party thinks anew.

The Prashant Kishor affair—where jaded, old leaders nearing or past retirement age thwarted change—spoke to only one part of that need. It perhaps showed that the world of political caucuses, the enclosed spaces where ideas moved in circles of committees and subcommittees till they ran out of steam, cannot create a future. But the idea of getting Prashant Kishor in was also essentially a sign that the GOP has gotten so fatigued and battle-worn that it was outsourcing its faculty of thinking itself. Not the best sign of vitality.

Now that they are all getting down to the business of thinking for themselves, they could ponder over one possibility. By looking at a stasis-ridden centre as if it's a zone unto itself, they may be looking at the wrong place—and making the wrong diagnosis. This is the time for the party to think federally, so to speak, right at its centre.

A CASE FOR DYNAMIC PERMANENCY IN UNSC

N SATHIYA MOORTHY

Policy Analyst and Commentator, Chennai

The way Prime Minister Narendra Modi collected endorsements for the long-pending demand for India being made a permanent member of the UN Security Council (UNSC) during his recent tour of Europe is heartening. After all, New Delhi has been after this long before Modi became prime minister, all the time rightfully deserving what should be considered an entitlement, not an honour—and core groups in the West have always found ways to deny it, by delaying it.

China, which is one of the five permanent members with veto power, along with the US, Russia, the UK and France, is the bogeyman—and understandably so. But times have changed and so has India's importance in the global theatre. The way the entire West on the one hand and Russia on the other have been continuously wooing New Delhi over the Ukraine War should be an eye-opener. The actions of the Western nations, especially, have exposed their inherent limitations in the matter.

Conveniently, all those who did not want to give nations such as India, Germany and Japan a P-5 seat have expanded the reference by making it a part of what they called the larger UN Reforms, even at times adding nations like Brazil and South Africa to the list. The closest the US was ready to consider was a P-5 status without veto, tantamount to that of a 'permanent observer'.

Close to a decade now, barring the customary mention in the annual UN General Assembly (UNGA) address, and a possible passing mention in bilateral talks with friendly nations, New Delhi has not said much in recent years. Today, when the West wants to woo India on Ukraine, their B and C Teams are making such feel-good statements.

Power of the powerless: It is incredible how, barring the US, post-War, the rest are hanging on to a legacy without earning or deserving it. The UK has been a has-been nation for much of the UN's history. Russia recently has only used its veto to defend itself on the Ukraine War not only in the UNSC but also in the General Assembly, where a massive majority of member nations condemned it—twice in as many months.

This is not all. In the unipolar world, the US bluffed its way through the General Assembly, and defied the Security Council to launch the 'Weapons of Mass Destruction (WMD) war' on Iraq and had a kangaroo-court hang Saddam Hussein. The question is not whether Saddam was a sinner or not. It is about the relevance of the UN system and the respect that veto powers have for it.

Obvious justification: If there is still a need for a high table with high priests to sit in judgment over lesser mortals, why not have an elected, rotational model, with, say, fixed terms of five years, instead of two or three years as applicable to most UN affiliates? The number of permanent members and number of consecutive terms too could be debated and decided. The scheme has worked, and worked fairly well, in the UNHRC and the International Court of Justice (ICJ).

> It is incredible how, barring the US, the rest are hanging on to a legacy without earning or deserving it. Three of the five P-5 members are from Europe. ... Today, when the West wants to woo India on Ukraine, their B and C Teams are making feel-good statements about permanent membership

There is an obvious justification. Three of the five P-5 members are from Europe, if they still consider Russia to be a European nation, and not a 'distant continent' from the Ice Age. The US alone earned its seat for helping Allies to win the two great wars. China, and before that Taiwan, then Formosa, was there by default, representing Asia.

As a colony, India became a Charter-Member at the funding of the UN in 1942. So did many other colonised nations. Maybe, but for the two great wars, possibly no UN body would have been there to begin with.

Elected, rotational: All of Asia now has only one P-5 member, and China is antagonistic towards all other regional powers. But the region as a whole tops the list in terms of size, population, maritime traffic, military and nuclear hotspots than any other.

Africa, to the UN founders, was/is non-existent. Hence, they have their mini-UN in the African Union (AU) with 55 member nations. They still need the UN system to help alleviate hunger, poverty, malnutrition—a penalty that the erstwhile colonial powers pay to atone for their past sins and 'clear their conscience'.

There are also other organisations like the geographically undefined Organisation of Islamic Cooperation (OIC), which goes beyond the Gulf-Arab region. There is then the European Union (EU), which hopes to replace the US as much as a military power as an economic powerhouse if and when the opportunity presents itself. The Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) has both economic and political roles, but the way the group is going about Myanmar's membership after last year's coup, makes it still unsure.

In this overall background, the question that needs to be asked, loud and clear, is about the desirability of rotational/dynamic permanent membership with fixed terms, renewable or not. It may sound simple and simplistic. But if the argument gains ground, it would capture the imagination of nations that feel left out and are made to feel inadequate. If nothing else, the P-5 would sit up and—and do what needs doing.

Maintaining harmony

This is with reference to Welcome stay on sedition law, now send it to the shredder (May 12). The apex court directive is welcome as the law has often been misused. In a democracy, freedom of expression must be respected, but at the same time, dissenters should not cross the lakshman rekha and disturb the peace and tranquillity of the country. There is a need for checks and balances to maintain harmony in society.

Ram Saran Singh, Bengaluru

Inaction of govts

The sedition law, with its colonial roots, has remained in the Indian law books, thanks to the inaction of successive governments since Independence. No doubt it was a tool in the hands of the state to curb dissent. A relook was long overdue. Indira Gandhi was notorious for misusing it and the Congress should take the maximum blame for the continued existence of the law that predates the Constitution itself. However, now the Congress and its allies are perhaps unable to digest the fact that they have been out of power for so long, and are criticising the law. But this is not to support the current government, which has been invoking it at the drop of a hat. I am glad that the Supreme Court is looking into the matter and has put the law on hold. With the Centre also willing to re-examine the provisions of Section 124A, one would hope that the draconian law would be scrutinised thoroughly so as to prevent its misuse in future.

Govardhana Myneedu, Vijayawada

Interpretation of rules

Earlier this year, the Kerala High Court criticised the authorities for forcing single and divorced parents to approach it to get passports reissued to their children. Unreasonable interpretation of the law by the passport office is not new. Way back in 1995, my adopted son was denied a passport though the legal procedures had been completed. After this newspaper published a report, the court directed the authorities to issue a passport in 10 days. Rules need to be interpreted such that the common man is not harassed.

Haridasan M, Kozhikode

Learn from Andhra

This is with reference to Attempt to rape: Verdict delivered in 57 days in AP (May 9). The Andhra Pradesh police and judiciary deserve appreciation for the quick verdict. This was possible thanks to coordination between the police, prosecution lawyers and judiciary. It is really commendable that the two accused were arrested within three hours and the trial completed in three days. Other states should learn from Andhra Pradesh.

Promote indigenous tech

India celebrates national technology day on May 11 every year. This day has significant historical importance. It was on this day in 1998 that our country successfully conducted the famous Pokhran nuclear test, guided by the missile man of India A P J Abdul Kalam under the leadership of Atal Bihari Vajpayee. The IAF successfully fired an extended-range version of BrahMos missile from Su-30 MKI fighter jet | PTI

EXTENDED RANGE OF THE CRUISE MISSILE

With this test-firing, IAF has achieved the capability to carry out precision strikes from Su-30MKI aircraft against a land/ sea target over very long ranges

The range of the advanced version is said to have been extended to around 350 km from the original 290 km

New range BrahMos test from Sukhoi hits bulls eye

Maiden launch of extended range version of the missile from Su-30

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

IN a series of spot-on tests, India on Thursday successfully fired the extended range version of BrahMos air launched missile from Su-30 MKI fighter aircraft. It was the first such launch of the missile from the frontline fighter aircraft.

The Indian Air Force confirmed the success. "The launch from the aircraft was as per plan and the missile achieved a direct hit on the designated target in the Bay of Bengal region," IAF said.

The extended range capability of the missile coupled with the high performance of the Su-30MKI aircraft gives the IAF a strategic depth and allows it to dominate the future battlefields, IAF said. "With this, the IAF has achieved the capability to carry out precision strikes from Su-30MKI aircraft against a land/sea target over very long ranges," said the force.

The test involved synergy among IAF, Indian Navy, DRDO and other wings. The air version of the older type of BrahMos was successfully test-fired from the supersonic fighter aircraft Sukhoi 30 MK-I from the Integrated Test Range, Chandipur, on December 8 last year.

India on Jan 11 successfully test-fired the extended-range sea-to-sea variant of the BrahMos supersonic cruise missile. The missile was test-fired from the Indian Navy's newly commissioned INS Visakhapatnam on the western seaboard.

The range of the initial version was fixed at 290 km with a speed almost thrice the speed of sound. The extended-range version of BrahMos was developed after India's full membership of the Missile Technology Control Regime, which removed caps on the range of the cruise missile. The BrahMos can be launched from submarines, ships, aircraft or land and has been inducted into all three services.

IAF sergeant honey-trapped

NEW DELHI: An Indian Air Force (IAF) sergeant has been arrested for allegedly leaking classified and sensitive information on defence installations and personnel. Police said the accused, Devendra Sharma, 32, who was working as an administrative assistant at the IAF's Record Office in Delhi, was "honey-trapped" by a Pakistan-based woman, with whom he got acquainted on Facebook. Initial investigations revealed Sharma shared radar related information with the Pakistani agent and was also asked to collect information on senior officers of the air force. The number being used by the women was of an Indian service provider, an officer said. Sharma was arrested on May 6 by Delhi Police Crime Branch for leaking information through WhatsApp to the "agent of adversary country" after deceitfully obtaining the same from computers. — ENS

J&K govt staff killed in terror attack in office

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

IN yet another targeted attack, two terrorists on Thursday barged into a government office in Budgam district of J&K and shot dead a Kashmiri Pandit staffer from close range. Rahul Bhat, a clerk in the tehsildar's office, was evacuated to a Srinagar hospital, where he succumbed to his injuries. Bhat was killed by pistol fire.

The attack comes at a time when J&K is preparing for polls after the recent delimitation of constituencies. Bhat was living at a migrant transit camp at Sheikhpora, Budgam. He landed a government job under the prime minister's package for migrant Pandits in 2010.

Angry over the killing, migrant Pandit government employees living in a transit camp at Vessu in Anantnag staged a protest demanded security and action against the assailants.

Last month, terrorists carried out a series of targeted attacks in the Valley, killing a Kashmiri Hindu Rajput, a sarpanch, a CRPF jawan and two Railway Protection Force personnel. Six other migrant workers, a Kashmiri Pandit and a CRPF jawan were injured in the attacks.

J&K Lt Governor Manoj Sinha called Bhat's killing barbaric and condemned it. "Targeted killings continue & a sense of fear grows unchecked," tweeted former CM Omar Abdullah.

Gadkari aims 18K km of highways @50 km a day

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

UNION Minister Nitin Gadkari on Thursday announced an ambitious target of constructing 18,000 km of national highways in the ongoing fiscal by paving roads at a record speed of 50 km per day.

The Ministry of Road Transport and Highways is looking to develop two lakh km of highways in the next three years as the aim is to expand the network of trunk roads for facilitating inter-state movement of passengers and goods across the country, he said.

"Ambitious targets to fulfil the ambitions of New India! Under the leadership of PM Shri @narendramodi ji, we are committed to expanding the NH network across the country with the aim of constructing 18,000 km of NHs in 2022-23 at a record speed of 50km per day," the Union minister tweeted.

The road transport and highways minister emphasised that construction of world class road infrastructure in a time bound and target oriented way is essential. Gadkari went on to compare it as the 'Atma' (soul) of an 'Atmanirbhar Bharat' (a self-reliant India).

At present, India has approximately 1.40 lakh km of national highways, including expressways. While highways or expressways constitute only about 1.7 per cent of the length of all roads, they account for about 40 per cent of the road traffic.

While the ministry had earlier set a record of constructing 37 km per day during 2020-21, the waves of Covid pandemic had slowed down the progress and approximately 26 km of road were being built per day.

The National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) and the National Highways and Infrastructure Development Corporation Ltd (NHIDCL) are primarily responsible for the construction of national highways and expressways across the country.

Swiss pharma firm brings breast cancer drug to India

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

PHESGO, the world's first-ever fixed-dose combination of two monoclonal antibodies in oncology to treat HER-2 positive breast cancer, which tends to grow and spread faster, is now available in India, announced Swiss biotechnology giant Roche Pharma on Thursday.

Composed of antibodies Perjeta (pertuzumab) and Herceptin (trastuzumab) with hyaluronidase, it is administered under the skin via injection in combination with intravenous (IV) chemotherapy for the treatment of early and metastatic HER2-positive breast cancer.

HER-2 is a protein that helps breast cancer cells proliferate. Breast cancer cells with higher than normal levels of HER2 are called HER-2 positive. However, they respond to treatment with drugs that target HER-2 protein. Breast cancer is the most common cancer in women in India.

Nearly 27.7 per cent of all new cancers detected in women in India in 2018 were breast cancers.

According to the pharma major, PHESGO is administered as a single injection just under the skin on the thigh and takes a few minutes compared to hours with IV formulations for each round of treatment. It also reduces the chair time for patients by 90 per cent.

V Simpson Emmanuel, CEO and MD of Roche Pharma, said, "PHESGO is a pathbreaking drug that will provide convenience and improve patients' quality of life who have breast cancer by significantly reducing the in-clinic time for them."

Poll panel sets the ball rolling for Rajya Sabha elections with June 10 date

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

ELECTIONS to fill 57 Rajya Sabha seats falling vacant in 15 states due to the retirement of members will be held on June 10, the Election Commission announced on Thursday.

Prominent among those who will be completing their tenures include Congress leaders Ambika Soni, Jairam Ramesh and Kapil Sibal, Union minister Mukhtar Abbas Naqvi and BSP's Satish Chandra Misra.

While some of the Congress leaders may make a comeback to the Upper House, others will have to wait to be elected to the Rajya Sabha again in the wake of the grand old party's shrinking footprints in state assemblies. The loss in the recent five assembly elections has further hurt the party's prospects on the Rajya Sabha seats.

The members are retiring between June 21 and August 1, while the highest 11 seats falling vacant in Uttar Pradesh. Six members each are retiring from Tamil Nadu and Maharashtra, five from Bihar and four each from Andhra Pradesh, Rajasthan and Karnataka. Three members each from Madhya Pradesh and Odisha, two each from Telangana, Chhattisgarh, Punjab Jharkhand and Haryana, and one from Uttarakhand are also completing their tenures.

The Congress is expected to gain a few seats from Rajasthan (4 vacancies), where the party is in government, and in states where it is in an alliance — Tamil Nadu (six vacancies), Maharashtra (six vacancies), and Jharkhand (two vacancies).

Polls ahead: BJP's OBC Morcha seeks parity with SC/ST in higher education

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR
@ New Delhi

AHEAD of elections in some states, including Gujarat, the BJP's national Morcha of OBCs on Thursday pitched for a hike in the scholarship and UGC post doctoral fellowship on par with SC/ST students for OBC students wishing to pursue higher education in the country.

BJP's OBC Morcha chief K Laxman submitted a memorandum to Education Minister Dharamendra Pradhan.

The Morcha is a prominent wing of the ruling BJP in electoral politics. It has demanded the BJP-led governments explore various options to provide digital devices to the OBC students to pursue education.

"The Covid pandemic has created problems for rural, marginalized and poor students in accessing online classes. The ministry can explore various options to provide digital devices to them," said the memorandum.

Laxman said the national fellowship for OBCs was increased from ₹300 to ₹1,000 slots in 2016.

"There is a need to increase the fellowship for OBCs too to ₹5,000 slots to encourage such students to pursue higher education," he said.

He has also demanded research centres in all universities to encourage research on social, educational, political, and economic and cultural aspects of OBCs.

"All scholarships, fellowships, exemptions and other provisions given to SC/ST students should also apply to OBC (non-creamy layer) students," said Laxman.

Modi chokes up over Gujarat girl's doc dream

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi on Thursday choked up in a virtual interaction with the daughter of a beneficiary of the government's welfare schemes. The occasion was 'Utkarsh Samaroh' in Bharuch, Gujarat.

Ayub Patel informed the PM how his sight suffered badly due to the side-effects of an eye drop while he was working in Saudi Arabia. His medical condition led him to worry about his daughter's dream of becoming a doctor.

The PM asked Ayub's daughter why she wanted to become a doctor. She said her father's condition forced him to take such a decision. As she spoke, her eyes welled up, forcing the PM to choke up in empathy. Pausing for a moment, the PM offered help to Ayub. "Let me know if you need any help."

Modi is about to complete eight years in office as the Prime Minister.

"These eight years were dedicated to the service of the poor and good governance. Whatever I am able to do today, I have learned from you (people)," said the PM.

The women participants in the programme gifted the PM a huge 'rakhi.'

As meet begins, Cong brainstorms on keeping Chintan details under wraps

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

BEFORE the Congress begins its chintan on how to lift the party's fortunes hereon, it is brainstorming how to stop the deliberations and discussions held at its three-day shivir in Udaipur from spilling out to the media.

Ahead of the Chintan Shivir beginning Friday, the party issued directives to all the delegates to ensure that only information through official means goes out of the closed-door meetings. The issue had been flagged by Congress president Sonia Gandhi as well as Rahul Gandhi during the Congress Working Committee (CWC) meeting a few days ago.

Rahul Gandhi at Delhi's Sarai Rohilla station to board a train to Udaipur | CONGRESS

The party has informed all delegates that they won't be allowed to carry their mobile phones inside the venues. The move comes as the details of the CWC meetings held in the past were flashed immediately by the media.

During his recent visit to Gujarat, Rahul told Congress leaders that the leadership was ready for all kinds of discussions and criticism, but it must happen at the party forum and not through the media or on any other public platform.

The Congress is therefore taking lot of pains to keep the details of the Chintan Shivir under wraps as the party has repeatedly faced embarrassment with leaders airing their grievances in public. The Shivir will see the party introspecting on its organisational strengths and weaknesses.

'Truth of Taj' plea: High court roasts petitioner

PIL seeking direction to open closed rooms of monument rejected

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

The Centre had in 2017 refuted claims on Taj as "concocted' and "self-built" | PTI

RAPPING the petitioner for "mocking" the PIL system, the Lucknow bench of the Allahabad High Court on Thursday dismissed a plea for opening 22 closed rooms on the premises of Taj Mahal.

The petition was filed by one Dr Rajneesh Singh, who claimed to be BJP's youth wing media in-charge of Ayodhya. Through the Public Interest Litigation, the petitioner had sought directions from the court to the Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) to open 22 closed rooms in Taj Mahal to ascertain "the presence of the idols of Hindu deities".

Reprimanding the petitioner, the division bench, comprising Justice DK Upadhyay and Justice Subhash Vidyarthi, stated: "Tomorrow you will come and ask us to go to chambers of honourable judges? Please, don't make a mockery of the PIL system."

The plea, filed through advocate Rudra Vikram Singh, sought the constitution of a fact-finding committee and the submission of a report by the ASI. The plea also cited the claims allegedly made by some historians and right-wing groups about the monument being an old Shiva temple which was known as "Tejo Mahalaya".

The petitioner had argued that there was "a truth" that the citizens of the country needed to know about Taj. He said his main concern was about the closed rooms, and everyone should know what was behind those doors.

During the hearing, the bench told the petitioner that such debates were welcome in informal settings, but not in a court of law. "Are we judges trained and equipped with such things?" it asked.

Over the petitioner's argument in connection with "the right to information", the bench said: "Go and research. Do MA. Do PhD. Then choose such a topic and if any institute disallows you to research on such a topic, come to us. Please enroll yourself in MA, then go for NET, JRF and if any university denies you to research on such topic then come to us."

The state opposed the plea on grounds of lack of jurisdiction. Its counsel claimed that the petitioner lacked territorial jurisdiction and there was already a suit filed in Agra in connection with Taj Mahal.

KRISHNA TEMPLE

Lower court to dispose of Mathura pleas in 4 months

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Lucknow

THE Allahabad High Court on Thursday granted four-month time to a Mathura court to dispose of all petitions related to the Shree Krishna Janmabhoomi-Shahi Idgah dispute. The HC also directed that all the litigations pertaining to the dispute should be fast-tracked.

Notably, the single bench of Justice Salil Kumar told the local Mathura court to proceed with ex-parte hearing if the parties (Sunni Waqf Board and others) concerned were not represented.

The petitioners had been claiming that the Shahi Idgah mosque was built after demolishing a part of the Shree Krishna Janmabhoomi temple on a stretch of 13.37 acres of the land adjacent to the temple. The petitioners had been demanding that stretch of land to be returned to the temple.

Petitioner Manish Yadav had approached the high court on Thursday requesting it to fast track all the cases pertaining to the dispute.

Sunni Waqf Board, the opposite party in the case, was not present in the high court during the hearing. Over the past several years, at least 10 petitions had been pending in Mathura court in connection with the issue.

Petitioner Yadav claimed that the case had been going on in Mathura Court for two years without any response from the opposite party. Yadav also accused the opposite party of deliberately causing delay in the disposal of the case.

Survey at Gyanvapi premises to continue

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Lucknow

REFUSING to remove the court-appointed advocate commissioner, a Varanasi court on Thursday ordered that the survey and videography work would continue to ascertain the facts regarding Shringar Gauri Stahl on the Gyanvapi mosque premises.

It also appointed two more lawyers — Ajay Singh and Vishal Singh — as commissioners to accompany Advocate Commissioner Ajay Kumar Mishra to the mosque premises. Judge Ravi Kumar Diwakar asked the team to complete the survey and submit a report on May 17.

Notably, Gyanvapi mosque management committee — the Anjuman Intezamia Masajid (AIM) — had opposed the survey and filed a petition on May 9 seeking removal of Mishra alleging bias.

The court said that locks at the mosque would be opened for survey, if necessary. The district administration should lodge an FIR and take the strictest action possible if there is any hindrance, the court said, adding that under no condition should the work be stopped.

During the survey work, the judge said, only plaintiffs, respondents, their lawyers, advocate commissioners, their assistants and others related to the commission's work would be present at the spot. The survey work will take place from 8 am to 12 noon every day till the commission's work concludes, added the court.

The judge also issued directives to the district administration to ensure that commission's work was completed smoothly without any obstacle. "The UP DGP and state chief secretary are also directed to supervise the related action so that the district officials cannot make any excuses to postpone the commission's action," the order read.

Initially, the Varanasi court had ordered to conduct the survey on April 26, while hearing a petitions seeking daily worship of the Goddess Shringar Gauri. The image of the Goddess is believed to be located on highly-sensitive Gyanvapi-Kashi Vishwanath temple premises.

Did Kejriwal impact BJP actions?

Since Bhupendra Patel became the Chief Minister, C R Patil has been a constant presence beside him in nearly every government function. However, Arvind Kejriwal ceaselessly criticising Patil may have changed the minds of those in BJP's echelons. But sources said that a fresh order has come from high command calling on the party organisation and the state chief do the work of the party – and the CM do the work of the government. In concurrence, Patil has now began sticking to BJP programmes in Gujarat alone. Probably following the order, Patil has rolled out the 'One day, One district' programme where he spends a day in one district, every day from 10 am to at 10 am the following day.

Vishwas vs AAP in Gujarat elections?

Kumar Vishwas, who left the AAP, had some success in labelling Kejriwal as 'Khalistani' during the Punjab elections – while its carryover in the BJP quarters was not as impactful. However, media circles are abuzz with speculations about the singer-turned-politician joining the BJP. A few days back Vishwas organised the 'Apne Apne Ram' programme in Ahmedabad, originally planned by the BJP-allied Ram Seva Samiti. BJP's media in-charge Yagnesh Dave was the organising committee head. Nevertheless, Vishwas's programme cum press meet saw a hasty opening and was canceled at the last minute. Sources said the BJP was deterred by the fact that journalists might quiz them on Vishwas' and BJP's relationship.

Attention on Congress defectors irks BJP netas

It is rumored that some BJP leaders from Sabarkantha and Aravalli districts are offended by the inclusion of Congress leader Ashwin Kotwal in the BJP, against whom they had contested against and lost in the 2007 and 2017 elections. The main name making the rounds is MP Ramilaben Bara who – according to sources – was not present when Kotwal was inducted into the BJP. All other BJP leader from these two districts were present. When Kotwal came to join the BJP with thousands of supporters in a long roadshow, his joining ceremony was completed in half an hour. There is a lot of resentment among the party leaders over how the BJP is hauling in a large number of Congress leaders these days.

Bengal CM writes to PM for funds

PRANAB MONDAL @ Kolkata

CM Mamata Banerjee at a function in Kolkata on Thursday | PTI

WEST Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee on Thursday wrote to Prime Minister Narendra Modi seeking his immediate intervention to release Central funds to the tune of ₹6,500 crore due to the state.

"It is very astonishing that the Government of India is not releasing funds to West Bengal for MGNREGA and PM Awas Yojana. You are aware that MGNREGS wages form an important part of livelihood for rural people and considering its importance, the Act mandates the wages must be paid within 15 days," Mamata wrote to the PM.

Mamata's letter to the PM is said to be politically significant as the state will go to panchayat polls in 2023 and non-payment of wages under MGNREGS may invite trouble for the ruling Trinamool Congress electorally.

In a meeting with civil service officers on Thursday, the Bengal CM said she is concerned that the Centre hasn't been releasing funds of MGNREGS since last December. She said the delay in release of funds by the Centre is causing "big troubles for the people in rural Bengal".

"In West Bengal, wage payment has been pending for more than four months as the Centre is not releasing funds to the tune of nearly ₹6,500 crore — ₹3,000 crore against wage liabilities and ₹3,500 crore against non-wage liabilities. In Awas Yojona, West Bengal is No. 1 in the country and from 2016-17, more than 32 lakh houses have been constructed in the state," she wrote in the letter.

Seeking Modi's immediate intervention, Mamata, in her letter, requested, "Considering the significance of the projects and the hardship being faced by people, I would request your immediate intervention and direction to the ministry concerned to release the funds without any further delay."

Bust drug mafia or face action: Mann tells cops

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

IN a bid to combat drug menace in the border state, Punjab Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann on Thursday directed top police officers to act in tandem with the Special Task Force on Drugs and to launch joint operations to nab the "big sharks" running the "drug mafia".

Addressing a high-level meeting of police commissioners and senior superintendents of police here, Mann categorically said that if any incident of drug supply comes to his notice from any part of the state, the SSP and CP concerned would be held solely accountable. He also asked the officers to immediately swing into action in case someone lodges any complaint about drug trafficking.

Emphasising the need for tightening the noose around drug smugglers across the state, Mann said strict action would be taken against the officials in case of accused getting default bail, particularly in cases of commercial recovery.

Mann directed DGP VK Bhawra to issue detailed guidelines to all SSPs to not disclose the price of drugs seized during recovery in the international market as this practice attracts people who want to make quick buck. He, however, said rest of the information regarding quantity seized, location of recovery and the details of accused could be made public.

The CM also said more de-addiction clinics will be set up in the stat. Mann also asked the DGP to speed up the process of confiscation of properties belonging to those involved with drug mafia. As preventive measures, the CM stressed that special focus should be laid on revamping sports infrastructure in villages and wards.

"In UP and other BJP-ruled states too, just like the Congress, the poor, SCs, tribals and Muslims are being harassed and they have to face atrocities, which is very sad. The BJP is ignoring the issues related to others... Hateful and terroristic action by the UP government against its opponents and keeping senior MLA Mohd Azam Khan in jail for about two-and-a-half years is an issue of discussion. It is justice being gagged in the eyes of common people," she tweeted.

In all, 88 cases were registered against Khan. The Rampur MLA leader has secured bail in 87 of them.

Srinagar to host J&K's first-ever national film festival next month

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

Singer Udit Narayan and TV actress Sonali Sachdev during a song shooting in Srinagar. The J&K film policy aims to attract more professionals to the UT | PTI

DESPITE being showcased in a large number of movies, be it Bollywood or regional cinemas, the picturesque valley of Kashmir has been missing a pan-India platform for local as well as other filmmakers to exhibit their works. This is poised for a change from the coming month.

After unveiling its maiden film policy last year, the Jammu and Kashmir administration is organising the first-ever national film festival of Jammu and Kashmir in Srinagar from June 15-20. The festival is being organised by the J&K administration in association with the National Film Development Corporation (NFDC).

According to officials, the idea is to highlight the "film, music and creative ecosystem" in the Union Territory, along with its natural and socio-cultural beauty.

The festival would be a congregation of "best of films and music, filmmakers, music artists and other allied talent", and also serve as a reservoir of creativity and inspiration.

Filmmakers have been invited to submit their original films — fiction, documentary, short film and music videos – for the 1st National Film Festival of Jammu and Kashmir.

The other objective of organising the film festival is to recognise Indian talent in music, feature, short and documentary film-making; provide opportunities to the sparsely-located film-making community of the J&K through networking and collaborative projects; to develop the skill of filmmaking using minimal/efficient resources; locating young and fresh talent in filmmaking in J&K.

According to officials, over 40 awards in three sections — feature film, non-feature film and music videos would be given away during the festival.

Sri Lanka court imposes overseas travel ban on Mahinda, 16 others

COLOMBO

A SRI Lankan court on Thursday imposed a ban on overseas travel on former prime minister Mahinda Rajapaksa, his son and MP Namal Rajapaksa and 15 others in view of investigations against them for the deadly attack on peaceful anti-government protesters in Colombo this week.

The Fort Magistrate's Court asked them to surrender their passports to the court due to the investigations taking place on the attacks on the GotaGoGama and MynaGoGama peaceful protest sites on Monday. At least nine people were killed and over 300 others injured in the violence.

The magisterial order came as a response to a request by the police's criminal investigation division who are conducting the investigations into the Monday's violence.

The court issued the bans on 13 legislators representing the ruling Sri Lanka Podujana Peramuna (SLPP), including Johnston Fernando, Sanath Nishantha, Pavithra Wanniarachchi, C B Ratnayake, and Sanjeewa Edirimanne. Senior Deputy Inspector General (SDIG) of the Western Province Deshabandu Tennakoon is also in the list of people who need to remain in the country for investigations into the violence.

Sri Lankan Parliament will debate a no-confidence motion against President Gotabaya Rajapaksa on May 17, the Speaker's Office confirmed on Thursday, amid the ongoing political turmoil triggered by the worst economic crisis plaguing the debt-ridden country.

The decision was taken during the party leaders' meeting on Thursday. The motion would be taken up for debate after obtaining special approval from Parliament, the Daily Mirror newspaper reported.

Speaking at a press conference after the party leaders met at the Parliament complex, Speaker Mahinda Yapa Abeywardena said that the proposal, including the security of the members of parliament, submitted by the leaders will be prepared and handed over to the President Rajapaksa.

Parliamentarian M A Sumanthiran emphasised that a stable government was necessary for the country to move forward.

Sumanthiran noted that while a stipulated time duration has not been given for the resignation of the president, action must be taken soon with regard to the appointment of the prime minister, News First website reported. PTI

Taliban stop women, men dining together

Herat: Taliban authorities have banned men and women from dining out together and visiting parks at the same time in the western Afghan city of Herat, an official said Thursday. Afghanistan is a deeply conservative and patriarchal nation but it is common to see men and women eating together at restaurants -- particularly in Herat, a city long-considered liberal by Afghan standards. Riazullah Seerat, a Taliban official at the Ministry for Promotion of Virtue and Prevention of Vice in Herat, said authorities "have instructed that men and women be segregated in restaurants". AFP

N Korea fires 3 missiles amid Covid outbreak

SEOUL

NORTH Korea fired three short-range ballistic missiles toward the sea on Thursday, South Korea's military said, in the latest of a series of weapons demonstrations this year that came just hours after it confirmed its first case of the coronavirus since the pandemic began.

The launches could underscore North Korea's determination to press ahead with its efforts to expand its arsenal despite the virus outbreak to rally support behind the leader, Kim Jong Un, and keep up pressure on its rivals amid long-dormant nuclear diplomacy.

South Korea's Joint Chiefs of Staff said in a statement the three missiles launched from the North's capital region on Thursday afternoon flew toward the waters off the country's eastern coast.

It said South Korea's military has boosted its readiness and surveillance while maintaining close coordination with the United States. Japan also detected the North Korean launches.

The Japanese coast guard said that a possible ballistic missile from North Korea was believed to have landed at sea. It urged vessels around the Japanese coasts to watch out for falling objects and report them to the authorities.

Earlier on Thursday, North Korean state media confirmed the country's first Covid infections as Kim ordered nationwide lockdowns to slow the spread of the virus. Kim also ordered officials to bolster the country's defense posture to avoid any security vacuum.

In recent months, North Korea has test-launched a spate of missiles in what experts call an attempt to modernise its weapons. Some observers say that despite the elevated anti-virus steps, North Korea would likely continue its weapons tests to try to boost public morale at home and strengthen loyalty toward the Kim leadership. AP

Russia pummels Ukraine's east as Finland moves toward NATO bid

Ukraine seeks evacuation of wounded fighters, offers to release Russian prisoners in exchange

KYIV

RUSSIAN forces unleashed airstrikes on the last pocket of Ukrainian resistance in the besieged city of Mariupol and pressed their advance on towns across the country's east, Ukraine's military said on Thursday. As the war, which has ground to a stalemate, wrought more death and upheaval, its globe-shaking repercussions spread, with Finland announcing plans to end decades of neutrality and seek NATO membership.

Finland's president and prime minister said on Thursday that the Nordic country should apply 'without delay' for membership in the Western alliance, founded in part to counter the Soviet Union. The announcement means Finland is virtually certain to seek to join the military alliance, though a few steps remain before the application process can begin. Neighboring Sweden is expected to decide on joining NATO within days. NATO's support of Ukraine, particularly by supplying weapons, has been critical to Kyiv's surprising success in stymieing Russia's invasion, which began on February 24. Many observers thought Moscow's larger and better-armed military would be hard to stop, but the Ukrainians have bogged Russian troops down and thwarted their goal of overrunning the capital. Still, the war has unleashed staggering destruction, killed thousands and forced millions from their homes, while shattering Europe's sense of post-Cold War stability. It has prompted NATO to send troops and weapons to fortify the alliance's eastern frontier and led Sweden and Finland to reconsider long-standing opposition to joining the trans-Atlantic alliance, whose members are committed to mutual defense.

Stop bombings Ukrainian schools: UN

UN: The United Nations on Thursday demanded an end to the bombing of Ukrainian schools, and denounced their use for military ends during a meeting of the Security Council. "Hundreds of schools across the country are reported to have been hit by heavy artillery, airstrikes and other explosive weapons in populated areas," Omar Abdi, deputy executive director of the UN children's fund, told the Council. "These attacks must stop," Abdi said. As of last week, of the 89 UNICEF-supported schools in eastern Ukraine, one in six had been "damaged or destroyed" since the Russian invasion, he said. "Other schools are being used as information centers, shelters, supply hubs, or for military purposes — with long-term impact on children's return to education," he added. AFP

In Mariupol, which has seen some of the worst destruction of the war, Ukraine offered to release Russian prisoners of war in exchange for the safe evacuation of badly wounded fighters trapped inside the Azovstal steel mill, the last redoubt of Ukrainian forces in the ruined city.

Ukrainian Deputy PM Iryna Vereshchuk said that negotiations were under way to release the wounded. She said there were different options, but 'none of them is ideal.' Russia's forces have taken control of the rest of the city, which they besieged for weeks, as residents ran short of food, water and medicine. Many thousands have fled, saying almost nothing remains of the port city, but an adviser to the Mariupol mayor said Russian forces have now blocked all evacuation routes.

Petro Andriushchenko said there are few apartment buildings fit to live in, and some remaining residents are cooperating with occupying Russian forces in exchange for food. AP

5-yr jail term for 22 accused of vandalising temple in Pak

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

AN anti-terrorism court in Pakistan has sentenced 22 people to five years of imprisonment each for attacking a Hindu temple in Punjab province in 2021.

The incident happened in July 2021. The accused allegedly attacked the Ganesh temple at Bhong city of Rahim Yar Khan district in Punjab province with sticks, bamboos and weapons.

The angry mob also assaulted the security guard, damaged idols, walls, doors and electric fittings and set part of the temple ablaze.

The attack was allegedly in reaction to the desecration of a Muslim seminary by an eight-year-old Hindu boy.

At least 84 persons were taken into custody in September 2021 and a case was registered. Judge Nazir Hussain of the anti-terrorism court in Bahawalpur of Punjab province pronounced the verdict on Wednesday.

Following the attack, the government bore the expenses to restore the temple. Following the attack, former Pakistan Chief Justice Gulzar Ahmed had said the incident brought shame to the country.

Inflation strikes market, investors lose ₹5.3 lakh cr

NSE Nifty dived 359 points, while BSE Sensex tumbled 1,158 points

RAM SAHGAL @ Mumbai

FRONTLINE indices Nifty and Sensex tanked over 2% on Thursday, wiping out ₹5.3 lakh crore in investor wealth amid a global market rout and ahead of India's April CPI release, which came in higher than Street expectations.

The rupee hit a record low of 77.63 to the dollar, in part due to FII selling.

"Markets had priced in a higher inflation reading, but with the figure being worse than anticipated, volatility is here to stay," said Nilesh Shah, MD, Kotak Mahindra AMC.

The Nifty dived 359 points to close at 15,808, while the Sensex tumbled 1,158 points to 52,930.31. The Bank Nifty was at the threshold of a bear market having fallen from its record high by 19.8% to 33,532.15 Thursday. The Nifty Smallcap 100 is in bear territory falling below its March low at 8,714.35, signalling potentially more pressure for blue -chip indices like Nifty.

A stock or index enters bear territory when it corrects 20% or more from its recent highs. The Sensex and Nifty are down 15% from their October 2021 record highs.

With bears in control , analysts expect further downside.

"Things could become worse before getting better," said Rajesh Palviya, VP, Axis Securities. "The next supports for Nifty are at 15,672 and 15,500 , which if broken could result in further pain."

The uncertainty in the market was reflected by fear gauge India Vix rising 6.41% to 24.27, with a reading above 20, signalling negative sentiment.

FIIs continued their selling streak offloading a provisional ₹5,256 crore worth of shares Thursday. So far this fiscal year, they've sold shares worth a whopping ₹37,550 crore. Last fiscal they sold shares worth ₹1.4 lakh crore of equities.

Rohit Srivastava, founder, IndiaCharts, said Indian stocks were in a "bear market" and higher inflation in April meant more aggressive rate tightening, which would queer the pitch for the market.

"We see June's policy to be super-live, and the MPC may front-load rates by another 25bps-40bps," said Madhavi Arora , lead economist, Emkay Global Financial Services.

Campbell Wilson new Air India CEO

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

TATA SONS on Thursday announced appointment of Campbell Wilson as the chief executive officer (CEO) & managing director (MD) of Air India. The Air India board approved the appointment of Wilson, subject to requisite regulatory approvals.

Wilson, 50, has 26 years of aviation industry expertise across both full-service and low-cost airlines. He is currently the CEO of budget carrier Scoot, the wholly-owned subsidiary of Singapore Airlines (SIA). Tata and SIA, in a joint venture, operate full-service carrier Vistara in India. There are wide speculations that Vistara would be integrated to Air India in future, especially after the recently privatised airline proposed to acquire AirAsia India.

N Chandrasekaran, Air India Chairman, said, "He is an industry veteran having worked in key global markets cutting across multiple functions. Further, Air India would benefit from his added experience of having built an airline brand in Asia. I look forward to working with him in building a world-class airline."

Speaking on the occasion, Wilson, said, "It is honour to be selected to lead the iconic Air India and be a part of the highly-respected Tata Group."

The appointment of Wilson comes after Tata's failed attempt to appoint former Turkish Airline chairman Ilker Ayci as MD and the CEO of Air India. On March 14, Ayci declined the offer of Tata Sons because of negative publicity in a section of Indian media over his close proximity with the current President of Turkey.

Then in mid-April, chairman Chandrasekaran chaired a major reshuffle in the top management of the airline with Nipun Aggarwal appointing as chief commercial officer and Suresh Dutt Tripathi as chief human resources officer.

Tata Group had won the bid to acquire the national carrier, along with Air India Express, and 50% stake in AISATS in October last year for ₹18,000 crore after a competitive bidding process that lasted for more than a year. Tata Group officially took over the management of the airline on January 22.

TV, AC TO GET DEARER ON RUPEE FALL, RISING EMIs

SAMIKSHA GOEL @ New Delhi

DEPRECIATING rupee against USD and an increase in EMIs owing to the 40 bps repo rate hike by the RBI have posed new challenges for the consumer durables industry.

The depreciating rupee is set to increase input cost for companies and most are planning to raise price of products - which means consumers planning shopping for TVs, ACs, washing machines, refrigerators will need to shell out more money.

Major companies that TNIE talked to are planning a further price hike of 3-5% soon. It is to be noted that companies have already increased prices by 7-10%. Another hike in prices accompanied with higher EMI (Equated monthly instalment) may dent sales, according to experts.

Amnish Aggarwal - Director - Research at Prabhudas Lilladher told TNIE that the depreciation in rupee will further increase the input costs and consequently the product prices. "So the EMI impact will be due to higher interest rates as well as product prices. Higher EMIs can impact sales of big-ticket items in whitegoods, electronics and laptop/PC etc."

Manish Sharma, CEO, Panasonic India & SA said the last price hike the company undertook was in January 2022. However, he said, "With increasing commodity prices, consumers can expect a 4-5% price hike soon across product categories, including refrigerators, washing machines, microwave ovens, among other appliances."

Avneet Singh Marwah, CEO SPPL, Exclusive Brand Licensee of Blaupunkt, Thomson, Kodak and White Westinghouse in India said there has been an increase of 20% in raw material and commodity prices and Thomson will raise prices in June and July by 3-5%.

India Inc to see 8.13% pay hike this year, says report

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

INDIA INC is likely to give an average salary increment of nearly 8.13% this year, according to a report released on Thursday.

TeamLease Jobs and Salary Primer Report for FY'22 suggests that unlike the last two years, this year most of the job roles from across sectors have been considered for a salary hike. However, the increments will be moderate.

"A majority of job roles are now Covid-proof and salary growth is more or less uniformly distributed across this large majority, with most organisations adapting to multiple modes of work – office, remote and hybrid and normalcy returning to the workplace," said the report.

Out of the 17 sectors reviewed 14 have indicated a single-digit hike, according to the report. Ecommerce and Tech Start-ups, Healthcare and Allied Industries, Information Technology and Knowledge Services are the only three sectors that have registered a salary growth greater than 10%.

This report is based on the salary payouts of more than 2,63,000 candidates across 17 sectors and 9 cities. Rituparna Chakraborty, Co-Founder & Executive Vice President, TeamLease Services said, "While the increments are yet to reach the double digit hikes, it is heartening to see that the phase of salary de-growth and stagnation that have been hovering across the job market in the last two years is nearing its end."

SAT grants interim relief to Anand Subramanian

RAM SAHGAL @ Mumbai

THE Securities Appellate Tribunal (SAT) on Thursday granted interim relief to Anand Subramanian, former group operating officer of NSE.

Earlier, Sebi had slapped a ₹2-crore penalty on him for allegedly making incorrect and misleading statements about his appointment. Subramanian appealed against the Sebi order of February 11.

SAT directed Subramanian to deposit ₹60 lakh within four weeks.

"We direct the appellant to deposit a sum of ₹60 lakh within four weeks from today (May 11). If the amount is deposited, the balance amount shall not be recovered during the pendency of the appeal. The amount so deposited shall be kept in an interest-bearing account, which would be subject to result of the appeal. The stay application is accordingly disposed of," SAT said in its order.

WHAT SEBI ORDER SAID ON SUBRAMANIAN

Sebi order said that Subramanian exploited Chitra Ramkrishna, former MD & CEO, by creating another identity before her in the form of Mr. Rigyajursama, an unknown person, to guide Ramkrishna perform her duties according to his wish

Besides becoming a key management personnel as GOO, the Sebi order said that Subramanian exploited Chitra Ramkrishna, former MD & CEO, by creating another identity before her in the form of Mr. Rigyajursama, an unknown person, to guide Ramkrishna perform her duties according to his wish. Subramanian allegedly acted against the interest of NSE by influencing the decisions of Ramkrishna in collusion with the unknown person.

However, SAT stated that this finding of Sebi prima facie "appears to be based on conjectures and beyond the show cause notice. Further, prime facie the imposition of penalty for making misleading statement about his appointment and being a KMP also appears to be excessive and arbitrary."

SAT gave Sebi three weeks to file its reply.

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

WHEN people use internet, they want to have control over how their personal information. Keeping this in mind, Google has announced a new tool to accompany updated removal policies so that anyone can request the removal of Google Search results that contain information such as their contact details, including phone numbers, home and email addresses.

This new feature will be available in the coming months on its app. At the Google I/O Developers Conference, held on Wednesday, the internet giant announced many new features including privacy measures. Now users can customise the type of advertisements they want to see by selecting from a range of topics they are interested in or they can opt to watch fewer ads.

Airtel, Jio add subscribers in March 2022, Vi loses user base

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

NET subscriber addition by Bharti Airtel and Reliance Jio increased the overall telecom user base to over 116.69 crore in March 2022, according to data released by telecom regulator Trai on Thursday for March 2022.

Airtel continued to gain new subscribers, the telco added 2.25 million customers, bringing its tally to 360.03 million in March 2022. Similarly, Reliance Jio, after a three-month decline, gained 1.26 million subscribers. However, Vodafone Idea's subscriber losses continued, as the telco lost 2.81 million customers as the first quarter of 2022 came to an end. The gaining of subscribers by these two telcos indicates that SIM consolidation, which started after tariff hike, is over now.

Meanwhile, Bharti Airtel founder and Chairman Sunil Bharti Mittal said that the company has raised $18 bn in the past 30-34 months. Mittal also said the capital raised in all these years has repaired the firms 's balance sheet.

NCLT to hear insolvency petition against Future Retail on June 6

RAM SAHGAL @ Mumbai

THE NCLT Mumbai on Thursday adjourned the hearing on Bank of India's plea to admit its insolvency petition against Future Retail (FRL) to June 6.

The adjournment followed a request for a week's time by FRL counsel Shyam Kapadia to file its reply opposing admittance of BoI's petition under Section 7 of the IBC.

BoI has a total exposure of ₹1441.62 cr to FRL, which cumulatively owes 26 banks around ₹15,000 cr.

Senior advocate Ravi Kadam pressed for admittance of the petition on grounds of "existence of debt and existence of default," citing Cibil and NeSL records of the amounts FRL owed to BoI under various facilities and the events of default. He also cited exits of FRL's MD Rakesh Biyani and its company secretary as grounds for urgent admission and appointment of an interim resolution professional to take charge of the company.

However , Kapadia cited a petition of FRL pending before the Supreme Court which prays, among others , that banks don't tag the company an NPA for its inability to meet its dues under the framework agreement because of its legal tussle with Amazon.

This tussle, he argued , held up FRL's plans to monetise its small format stores to pay back the banks.

BoI's decision to press for insolvency was reportedly hastened after Reliance in February took over 835 stores of FRL, which couldn't pay rent to it for the same.

McCullum to coach England's Test team

New Zealand cricket great Brendon McCullum was hired as head coach of England's Test team on Thursday in another bold appointment coming soon after the decision to select all-rounder Ben Stokes as captain. The 40-year-old McCullum, who currently coaches IPL team Kolkata Knight Riders, has never been in charge of a Test team.

Breaks helped me evolve: Gatlin

2004 Olympic gold medallist feels that if it weren't for doping ban, he may have gone even quicker

ASHIM SUNAM @ Bengaluru

DRESSED in white tee, blue track pants and running shoes, Justin Gatlin, 40, who retired in February, looked fit as a fiddle. The American, who is in the city as the TCS World 10K Bengaluru International Ambassador, touched upon various points, including his 2017 win over Usain Bolt, theeir rivalry, his period of suspension among many other points in a media interaction on Thursday.

Justin Gatlin is all smiles at a promotional event in Bengaluru | VINOD KUMAR T

On beating Bolt at the 2017 Worlds

Definitely one of the high points because obviously our battles throughout the years is for the ages, one of the key points of track and field history. So I've locked with Usain for many years, starting back from 2005, when he was a young athlete going all the way through so obviously in 2004, 2015, 2017, it was key points in my career.

On his rivalry with him

When you have a rivalry like that, it always comes with some kind of ego. So if you look back, we have never contributed our success to each other throughout our career while we were active. But as we left the sport, it became, I think, more clear and realisation that we have helped each other to be better athletes. He's gone on record saying that I pushed him, especially at a point where he felt like the sport was not as exciting for him anymore.

On your periods of suspension and could you gone quicker if it weren't for those

Those are things I always think about, those are the what ifs, but I also look back, even sitting out and coming back into sport. If I didn't ever sit out, I might not even be running in 2017 or 2019, or even 2015. After 2008, I might have been done. So for me, it was the fact that it was kind of like a gift and a curse in a way, you know, like, it showed my longevity. It showed my dedication to the sport, it showed how hard I worked to achieve these things. Because I ran into a part of history where athletes don't run, they don't run at 38, 39 years old... do I think my time would have been faster? Possibly if I stayed in the sport, but at the same time, I was able to sit back, watch how the sport was developing and blossoming, watching how Usain has turned 9.8s and 9.7s into something that's normal that we were able to see. And I was able to say, 'okay, that's what I need to do' so it helped me evolve as an athlete.

On if running 100m under 9.5 seconds is a possibility

Yeah, I think what people don't realize is that, when you look at sports, we just look at the physical part of it like, how to achieve how to run 9.5s but also comes a mental part of it. You have to believe, then you set out physically to go out there and achieve it. I think a lot of people look at 9.5 that is so amazing. I can't achieve that. But if you really put your mind to it, and break down the journey that it will take to run 9.5, it's achievable. Obviously everything has to come together — nutrition, rest, recovery, competition, strength, patience.

Men in Thomas Cup semis, create history

AGENCIES @ Bangkok

IN 73 years of Thomas Cup, India's men's team has always fallen short of medalling at the event. That changed on Thursday night when HS Prannoy comfortably beat Malaysia's Leong Jun Hao 21-13, 21-8 to seal the quarterfinal tie 3-2 in India's favour. With a place in the semifinal guaranteed, the men's team assured itself of a medal.

While Lakshya Sen lost to Lee Zil Jia 21-23, 9-21, Satwiksairaj Rankireddy and Chirag Shetty (21-19, 21-15 over Goh Sze Fei and Nur Izzuddin) and Kidambi Srikanth (21-11, 21-17 over Ng Tze Yong) turned the tie in India's favour.

The inexperienced pair of Krishna Prasad Garaga and Vishnuvardhan Panjala lost in straight games to Aaron Chia and Teo Ee Yi before Prannoy took this team into the history books. There was a real sense of destiny when India named the squad. What contributed to it was the added depth with Sen's emergence. While Malaysia's No 3 singles player was a player outside the top 100, India had somebody like a Prannoy, ranked No 23.

The women's team was humbled by Thailand in the Uber Cup quarters. It was important for PV Sindhu to win her match against Ratchanok Intanon to set the tie. But she went down 18-21, 21-17, 21-12. The hosts wasted no time in tripling that advantage to seal the tie 3-0.

Chess Olympiad a huge chance, says Gukesh

ASHOK VENUGOPAL @ Chennai

GRANDMASTER Dommaraju Gukesh won his third consecutive tournament in Spain as he scored an unbeaten 8/10 to claim first place at the Chessable Sunway Formentera Open. After missing several tournament triumphs on tiebreaks, Gukesh registered an outright victory in Formentera by finishing a half point ahead of the field. Thus, Gukesh won three tournaments in a row in Spain without conceding a single game. His unbeaten streak, which started on April 12, is now at 26 games.

He first won the La Roda Open (8/9), followed by the Menorca Open (6/7) and the Chessable Sunway Formentera Open (8/10). Gukesh gained a lot of points to jump to world No 66 in the live ratings. He is the fifth highest-ranked Indian player with a live rating of 2674.6.

Gukesh — who is in the best form of his career and a part of the Indian team for the chess Olympiad — is keen to learn and work on every input from the legendary Vishy Anand, Boris Gelfand and all the coaches at the Indian team Olympiad camp.

Excerpts:

How do you feel after posting a hat-trick of titles?

Happy and satisfied with my play. Trusted my intuition more and played freely without much self doubt.

Mumbai eliminate Super Kings

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Chennai

"THERE'S nice live grass on the wicket, so the pacers will get seam movement.... It's a good batting wicket, 175-plus is quite achievable on this pitch," said Mathew Hayden, on his pitch report. As if taking a cue from his words Mumbai Indians called the coin right and put Chennai Super Kings in to bat.

They were immediately rewarded as CSK top order caved into some disciplined bowling by Mumbai pacers. CSK had a disastrous start, losing Devon Conway and Moeen Ali without opening their account. Both fell to the pace and bounce of Daniel Sams. Jasprit Bumrah added salt to the injury by accounting for Robin Uthappa and CSK were reeling at 5 for 3.

Soon Ruturaj Gaikwad and Ambati Rayudu perished and now a lot depended upon MS Dhoni and Shivam Dube, the last recognised pair to help them post a respectable total. But that was not to be. Barring a 41-year old MS Dhoni (36 not out) none of the players showed a semblance of a fight or intent as CSK were all out for 97 in 16 overs.

Chasing 98 for a win, Mumbai too had a poor start losing opener Ishan Kishan cheaply. A while later Rohit Sharma got out and they lost wickets in clusters, going down to 33/4. Despite the struggle, Tilak Varma's unbeaten 34 took them across the line with five wickets to spare.

Brief scores: CSK 97 in 16 ovs (Dhoni 33 n.o; Sams 3/16) lost to MI 103/5 in 14.5 ovs (Tilak 34 n.o).

FIRST SNAP OF MILKY WAY'S BLACK HOLE

The only direct visual confirmation yet of the monster lurking at the centre of our own galaxy

ASTRONOMY

PARIS: An international team of astronomers on Thursday unveiled the first image of a supermassive black hole at the centre of our own Milky Way galaxy — a cosmic body known as Sagittarius A*.

The image — produced by a global team of scientists known as the Event Horizon Telescope (EHT) Collaboration — is the first, direct visual confirmation of the presence of this invisible object, and comes three years after the very first image of a black hole from a distant galaxy.

Black holes are regions of space where the pull of gravity is so intense that nothing can escape, including light. The image thus depicts not the black hole itself, because it is completely dark, but the glowing gas that encircles the phenomenon — which is four million times more massive than our Sun — in a bright ring of bending light. Researchers say the unprecedented observations have greatly improved our understanding of what happens at the very centre of our galaxy.

The results are published in the astrophysical journal Letters. Sagittarius A* owes its name to its detection in the direction of the constellation Sagittarius. Its existence has been assumed since 1974, with the detection of an unusual radio source at the centre of the galaxy. In the 1990s, astronomers mapped the orbits of the brightest stars near the centre of the Milky Way, confirming the presence of a supermassive compact object there – work that led to the 2020 Nobel Prize in Physics. Though the presence of a black hole was thought to be the only plausible explanation, the new image provides the first visual proof.

Capturing images of such a faraway object required linking eight giant radio observatories across the planet to form a single "Earth-sized" virtual telescope called the EHT.

These included the Institute for Millimetre Radio Astronomy (IRAM) 30-meter telescope in Spain, the most sensitive single antenna in the EHT network. The EHT gazed at Sgr A* across multiple nights for many hours in a row — a similar idea to long-exposure photography and the same process used to produce the first image of a black hole, released in 2019.

That black hole is called M87* because it is in the Messier 87 galaxy. Despite the fact Sgr A* is much closer to us, imaging it presented unique challenges.

Gas in the vicinity of both black holes moves at the same speed, close to the speed of light. But while it took days and weeks to orbit the larger M87*, it completed rounds of Sgr A* in just minutes. The researchers had to develop complex new tools to account for the moving targets. The resulting image — the work of more than 300 researchers over a period of five years — is an average of multiple images that revealed the invisible monster lurking at the centre of the galaxy.

Pilot ill, passenger lands plane in US

AVIATION

MIAMI: A passenger without flying experience landed a small plane at a Florida airport after the pilot was rendered "incoherent" by a medical emergency, US media reported Wednesday.

The unwitting pilot, the only passenger on the single-engine Cessna 208, relied on air traffic control to guide his landing at Palm Beach International Airport, some 110 kilometers north of Miami, NBC reported. Officials at Fort Pierce, north of Palm Beach, received an emergency call around noon on Tuesday from the passenger, saying, "I've got a serious situation here," NBC reported.

"My pilot has gone incoherent. I have no idea how to fly the airplane." Asked for his position he said, "I have no idea" but that he could see the Florida coastline.

"Maintain wings level and just try to follow the coast, either north or southbound," the air traffic official told him. "We're trying to locate you."

Air traffic controller Robert Morgan said his experience as a flight instructor helped him guide the passenger, whose name has not been released.

US producer prices rise 11%, beat estimates

ECONOMY

WASHINGTON: US producer prices soared 11% in April from a year earlier, a hefty gain that indicates high inflation will remain a burden for consumers and businesses in the months ahead. The Labor Department said Thursday that its producer price index — which measures inflation before it reaches consumers — climbed 0.5% in April from March. That is a slowdown from the previous month, however, when it jumped 1.6%. The report included some signs that price increases are moderating, but at a painfully high level. The year-over-year increase in April fell from the 11.5% annual gain in March, the first decline in the yearly data since December 2020.

Yet prices are still rising at a historically rapid clip. Food costs rose 1.5% just in April from March, while shipping and warehousing prices leapt 3.6%. New car prices rose 0.8%. The producer price data captures inflation at an earlier stage of production and can sometimes signal where consumer prices are headed.

Renewed push to find lost ship

ARCHEOLOGY

A new effort is underway to find the remains of a British ship that Rhode Island colonists burned 250 years ago, marine archaeologists and state officials announced Tuesday. The June 10, 1772, burning of the HMS Gaspee was an an act of rebellion that some proud Rhode Islanders maintain was just as important in sparking the American Revolution as the Boston Tea Party. Yet schoolchildren rarely learn of it in history class. The latest search that will start in July is being conducted by the Rhode Island Marine Archaeology Project using more than $30,000 in privately raised funds. There have been previous searches for the Gaspee, but this time archaeologists will use the latest sonar technology, Rep Joseph McNamara, who has been involved in efforts to find the ship.
